KHF is pleased to announce that attorney Tianna K. Kalogerakis was recently installed as President of the Barristers' Association of Philadelphia.

The Barristers' Association of Philadelphia, Inc., an affiliate of the National Bar Association, was established in 1950 to address the professional needs and development of Black lawyers in the City of Philadelphia.

Tianna was recently recognized as one of "Philadelphia's Most Influential African Americans" by The Philadelphia Tribune, America's oldest and the Greater Philadelphia region's largest daily newspaper serving the African-American Community.
