Ms. Sharp practices in the following areas:

Complex Commercial Litigation
Employment Litigation and Preventative Services
Intellectual Property and Trade Secrets
Alternative Dispute Resolution
Appellate Litigation

Representative Matters:

- Represented a financial services company in a fraudulent transfer lawsuit. Obtained a verdict in the client's favor undoing the transfer, and awarding fees and punitive damages, following a bench trial.
- Represented a family in their dispute with a new owner of the family-owned company, alleging fraudulent inducement in the transfer of the business. Obtained a preliminary injunction appointing a receiver to oversee the company's asset, and ultimately a favorable settlement for the client.
- Represented an Atlanta technology company being sued by one of its suppliers for breach of contract, and added tort claims, including fraud and breach of fiduciary duty. Won summary judgment on all of the tort claims except for breach of fiduciary duty. The Court of Appeals reversed in client's favor.
- Represented a production company suing a major telecommunications company for an alleged failure to distribute a recording. Won the appeal in the Second Circuit, which reversed the district court's dismissal of client's Complaint on statute of limitation grounds.
- Represented an international technology company based in Atlanta in arbitration suing for fraud and breach of a stock purchase agreement. The case involved complex technical and legal issues, and a large number of documents. Obtained a favorable settlement for client prior to arbitration.
- Represented a consultant suing various developers for their failure to pay her consultancy fee in a week-long jury trial. Obtained a verdict of nearly $1,000,000 for the client, which included all of the client's legal fees.
