

Our Firm

We serve our clients throughout the United States. Our attorneys are licensed in a number of states, including, Florida, Georgia, Michigan, New York, Ohio, and Pennsylvania. Many of our attorneys have been partners in large law firms, in house counsel and general counsel for a publicly held company. Our commitment is to provide superior service in a small firm setting at a cost-effective rate, without the inherent bureaucratic inefficiencies of a large law firm. This philosophy is reflected in our billing practices and non-traditional fee agreements.

Our firm brings decades of legal experience, a diverse and collaborative approach to creatively solving problems, and laser-sharp focus to meet the various needs of our clients. We pride ourselves in remaining attentive to our clients' needs and providing efficient, discrete, effective and timely services. Our lawyers are AV-Preeminent rated by Martindale-Hubbell and members of various bar associations.

National Counsel Program

We are privileged to serve several clients as national coordinating counsel.

Why retain national counsel?

- Qualified legal representation throughout the United States at a competitive fee rate
- Consistent and efficient strategies and case handling
- Limited exposure to burdensome litigation
- Local counsel is closely monitored to ensure effective representation of the company
- Consistent and regular reporting
- Reliable case valuation and resolution

We at Perez & Morris believe the efficiency, peace of mind and savings offered by the National Counsel Program is a valuable asset for any company.
