PRACTICE AREA COMMITTEE

ABOUT THE INTERNATIONAL LAW PAC

The International Law PAC will concentrate on cross-border matters of all types, including litigation, transactional, and regulatory matters. The PAC would provide a forum for its members to communicate and exchange interpretation and development of laws and policies governing international litigation, arbitration, and forms of alternative dispute resolution (ADR), as well as cross-border transactions across the spectrum of investments, provision of goods and services and financing. In addition, the PAC would serve as a platform for its members to cultivate best practices, to address current issues, and to build relationships with one another. The international law area is a recognized area of specialization in the legal profession, and numerous legal organizations schedule events or seminars whose entire agendas are aimed at the practice of international law, including the American Bar Association where there is a section of international law.

About Espinosa Trueba Martinez, PL

In founding our firm, we aimed at one goal: Providing first class intellectual property legal services. Our attorneys come from the finest domestic and international firms. We bring the demanding professional standards and experience necessary to provide small-firm service and big-firm results.

As a growing minority certified firm, we are sensitive to bringing together a diverse and rich range of experience to better serve our clients. Our goal is to address our clients' needs either through our own resources or through our network of highly qualified domestic and foreign professionals.

Our attorneys have extensive experience in complex trademark and patent litigation. We manage trademark cases in the U.S. and abroad involving the needs and demands of start-up businesses and large multinational corporations. We serve as lead counsel and special counsel in patent cases throughout the country. We help our clients deal with the growing problem of patent trolls in a systematic and common sense manner.

In copyright matters, we have briefed landmark cases to the U.S. Supreme Court and drafted complex international agreements. Our copyright cases have included such diverse topics as royalty violations, gray market labeling, database infringement and breach of software licenses.

Our extensive background in software, social networking, cloud computing and Internet matters allows our practitioners to understand how best to register, protect and defend our clients' related intellectual property rights.

Because of our location in South Florida, our practice is well-versed in international issues. We handle border issues, multinational litigation, off-shore corporate structures, overseas registration and enforcement in devising strategies for our clients. In protecting our clients' rights, we are sensitive to the subtle interplay necessary with local and national and foreign governmental authorities.

We bring this all together in an effort to provide the best legal services within our field of law – intellectual property.
