

NAMWOLF Attorneys To Be Recognized By The Temple Law Alumni Association

The Temple Law Alumni Association (“TLAA”) recognizes distinguished alumni each year at its Annual Meeting in June. All three of the awards it is giving out this year, will be going to attorneys from NAMWOLF member law firms.

President of The Axelrod Firm, Sheryl Axelrod, is being recognized with the TLAA Women’s Champion Award, which is given to a distinguished Temple Law alumnus who demonstrates a commitment to the progress and equality of women in the legal profession, especially in areas traditionally closed to women in the profession. The award also recognizes an alumnus who uses her position and influence to inspire, mentor, advance, promote, and encourage women to achieve excellence in the profession.

Axelrod Firm Attorney Vanessa M. Snyder is being recognized with the TLAA Service Award for her distinguished service to the Association. Ms. Snyder served as the TLAA’s Secretary for the past two years, helping to plan 12 separate events, and is chairing the Associations’ 100th Anniversary’s Gala and Fundraiser, which will be celebrated this October. Ms. Snyder was also elected to 2nd Vice President of the TLAA.

Tucker Law Group Shareholder and Managing Partner Joe H. Tucker, Jr. is being recognized with the TLAA Diversity Leadership Award, which is given to a Temple Law graduate who has demonstrated a strong commitment, and made a substantial contribution, to diversity and to promoting full and equal participation and inclusion in the legal profession.
