THE GAME PLAN

Strategy, teamwork, diversity, and superior performance are in Amy's DNA from her experience as a former NCAA Division I collegiate athlete and basketball coach. As a client of SLG, you can count on the same focus, drive, and collaboration when we work with you.

CREATING A NEW GAME PLAN Amy M. Stewart formed Stewart Law Group PLLC in 2017 to be an indispensable resource to in-house counselors who—regardless of the matter—refuse to lose. That is why “We’re on Defense” has become more than just a tagline for Stewart Law Group. It is a tireless mindset that drives Amy—and every member of the team—to remain focused on securing successful legal outcomes for every client. Whether it's general civil litigation, labor and employment, contracts, product liability, arbitrations, personal injury, or insurance defense, the Stewart Law Group team brings transparency and a personalized experience to each client engagement.

PRIORITIZING THE CLIENT, THEIR BUSINESS, AND THEIR OUTCOMES Stewart Law Group expertly plays its position as an extended part of the clients' team. The firm prides itself on prioritizing the objectives of litigation in the context of the clients' business strategy and long-term goals. The singular measure of success for SLG is client satisfaction. The billable hours accumulated on the path to victory are secondary to the trust and lasting relationships built by working collaboratively to achieve the win.

BRINGING MORE TO THE TEAM Stewart Law Group delivers hard-to-find expertise and specialized insights to each client engagement. Stewart Law Group is one of the few legal services firms certified as a Minority and Woman-Owned Business, the lone firm in Dallas. The distinction strengthens the value the firm brings to its clients, helps attract the brightest talent, and makes Stewart Law Group a role model in the community.

BECOMING THE NO. 1 PICK Stewart Law Group is setting the pace for a new way to team up with for-profit and non-profit entities of all sizes in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. As corporate in-house counsel increasingly draft small and fierce firms to help meet their ever-evolving litigation needs, Stewart Law Group has quickly become a number-one pick for outside counsel support services.

A WORD FROM FOUNDING PARTNER AMY M. STEWART A personalized touch and a strong, winning track record have earned Stewart Law Group a coveted place on many in-house counsel teams. Since its inception, the firm has quickly attracted a diverse clientele and has tripled in size based on the results the Stewart Law Group team of attorneys has produced.

“We have ongoing engagements with great clients and we've accomplished an amazing amount of work since we opened our doors,” said founding partner Amy M. Stewart.

TEAMWORK APPROACH

SLG prides itself on its firm culture of servant leadership and empowering others to succeed. SLG is on a mission to prove that diversity and excellence are not mutually exclusive concepts in the legal profession.

- Teamwork Makes the Dream Work. At SLG, we handle our cases with a client-centric approach by having a full-time Legal Director on staff. The Legal Director is responsible for your client experience. For example, they will confirm SLG is meeting your expectations related to your law firm guidelines, staffing, billing, and budget issues.
- Three Point Play. When you team up with SLG, you gain the access to and expertise of our support staff, led by our Legal Director, who ensures outside counsel guidelines are followed and SLG's standards are met. Finally, you are not charged when paralegals handle non-legal administrative tasks that should not be billed to the client, for example, setting up depositions or conferring with the arbitrator or court on hearing dates.
- We are a Role Model. As one of the largest minority and woman owned law firms in Texas, SLG prides itself on being responsible corporate citizens. As a result, we plan and partner with clients to hold joint pro-bono events (virtually and in-person) and we support other local, state, and national civic groups who support the empowerment of minorities and women. Before the pandemic, we enjoyed coming together as a team to volunteer. Since the pandemic, we still do virtual volunteer events, but we are excited to get back together soon to give back to the Dallas-Fort Worth Community.
- Never Stop Learning. SLG also provides specialized Zoom CLEs on various litigation topics for clients. SLG will identify what topics you, or maybe your human resources department, would like to learn more about. Then prepare a Lunch & Learn event. Further, SLG also would consider a secondment program to place a young lawyer in your legal department.

DIVERSITY AND LEGAL EXCELLENCE ARE NOT MUTUALLY EXCLUSIVE.
