STEWART | BRADBURY HAS THAT “IT” FACTOR.

CREATING A NEW GAME PLAN Amy M. Stewart and Sarah E. Bradbury formed Stewart Bradbury PLLC in 2017 to be an indispensable resource to in-house counselors who—regardless of the matter—refuse to lose.

That is why “We’re on Defense” has become more than just a tagline for Stewart Bradbury. It is a tireless mindset that drives Amy and Sarah—and every member of the team—to remain focused on securing successful legal outcomes for every client. From commercial, construction and product liability matters to insurance defense and employment and labor disputes, the Stewart Bradbury team brings transparency and a personalized experience to each client engagement.

PRIORITIZING THE CLIENT, THEIR BUSINESS AND THEIR OUTCOMES Stewart Bradbury expertly plays its position as an extended part of the clients’ team. The firm prides itself on prioritizing the objectives of litigation in the context of the clients’ business strategy and long-term goals. The singular measure of success for Stewart Bradbury is client satisfaction. The billable hours accumulated on the path to victory are secondary to the trust and lasting relationships built by working collaboratively to achieve the win.

BRINGING MORE TO THE TEAM Stewart Bradbury delivers hard-to-find expertise and specialized insights to each client engagement. And Stewart Bradbury is one of the few legal services firms certified as a Minority and Woman Owned Business. The distinction strengthens the value the firm brings to its clients, helps attract the brightest talent and makes Stewart Bradbury a role model in community.

BECOMING THE NO. 1 PICK Stewart Bradbury is setting the pace for a new way to team up with corporations of all sizes in the Dallas-Ft. Worth area. As corporate in-house counsel increasingly draft small and fierce firms to help meet their ever-evolving litigation needs, Stewart Bradbury has quickly become a number-one pick for outside counsel support services.

A WORD FROM THE FOUNDING PARTNERS “We really think of ourselves as a service-oriented enterprise, not a law firm. At the end of the day, we’re here to do what’s best for the client,” said founding partner Sarah Bradbury. “Clients are quick to tell us that they hire the lawyer, not the law firm. We carry this reminder with us to every engagement.”

A personalized touch and a strong, winning track record have earned Stewart Bradbury a coveted place on many in-house counsel teams. Since its inception, the firm has quickly attracted a diverse clientele and has tripled in size based on the results the Stewart Bradbury team of attorneys has produced.

“We have ongoing engagements with great clients and we’ve accomplished an amazing amount of work since we opened our doors,” said founding partner Amy M. Stewart. “We have a talented group of attorneys who are building on our expertise in commercial, labor and employment, insurance defense and product liability areas. Together we are honing our ability to serve a diverse client base,” said Amy.

In addition to providing unrivaled experience and personalized service, Amy and Sarah have made giving back to the community a cornerstone for Stewart Bradbury. Both partners are committed to paying their good fortune forward. They are dedicated to addressing women and minority issues head-on through the firm’s philanthropic initiative, S|B Impact.

“With S|B Impact we’ve put volunteerism at the forefront of the many ways we give back,” said Sarah. “Our team has already donated more than 100 hours to support organizations committed to helping women and children. Frankly, we are the true beneficiaries because we learn so much from them.”

According to Sarah, two organizations have captured the hearts and minds of Stewart Bradbury. The non-profit Mothers Abandoned or Widowed helps women who find themselves in difficult circumstances following the loss of a spouse. The veteran empowerment center, Honor Courage Commitment, offers events and programming to assist women veterans in making a successful transition back to civilian life.

Along with volunteering their time, the Stewart Bradbury team offers pro bono advice, support and mentorship to women across Dallas-Ft. Worth.

“When we brainstormed about the legacy we wanted to create...aside from being yet another law firm...Sarah and I knew we wanted to be a responsible corporate citizen,” said Amy. “We feel incredibly privileged to have overcome our own obstacles and we see it as our responsibility to give back by supporting women from all walks of life. We mean it when we say ‘support women—period.’ Our actions establish our commitment.”
