Differentiators

We consider ourselves business partners with law degrees. We place great emphasis on knowing the business of our clients. As such, our legal services are shrouded in an understanding of the pressures and risks that our clients have in managing their business to the bottom line. In representing our clients, we factor in what it takes for them to successfully run their business.

Past Performance

- Successfully represented The Coca-Cola Company in federal court in New Jersey and obtained the dismissal of a $10,000,000 breach of contract lawsuit which was affirmed by the Third Circuit.

R.C. Beeson, Inc. v. Coca Cola Co., 337 Fed. Appx. 241 (3d Cir. 2009)

- Successfully represented the Fulton County Tax Commissioner in an inter-governmental dispute with the City of Atlanta. The trial court issued a writ of mandamus and permanent injunction against the Tax Commissioner and we obtained a unanimous reversal in the Supreme Court of Georgia.

Ferdinand v. City of Atlanta, 285 Ga. 121, 674 S.E.2d 309 (2009)

- Successfully represented our Fortune 500 client in a multi-million dollar commercial arbitration involving a claim for breach of contract.
- Successfully represented Comcast, serving as local counsel for White & Case, LLP, in a telecommunications dispute in federal court in Atlanta. The trial court entered a temporary injunction against Comcast and we obtained a reversal in the Eleventh Circuit.

LSSi Data Corp. v. Comcast Phone, LLC, 696 F.3d 1114 (11th Cir. 2012)

- Successfully represented the Robert W. Woodruff Library at the Atlanta University Center in real estate litigation to quiet title to property acquired by the Library.
