PEOPLE SEE
DIVERSITY

ABOUT NAMWOLF

Founded in 2001, NAMWOLF is a non-profit trade association serving corporate and public entities interested in diversifying their outside law firm portfolios. Available data strongly suggest that the most effective way for corporations to proliferate diversity in the legal profession is to retain minority and women owned law firms. For more than a decade, NAMWOLF has been successfully providing corporations and public entities with unique access to an exclusive group of carefully vetted minority and women owned law firms. In turn, NAMWOLF Law Firms provide their clients with superior work product, long lasting relationships and valuable strategic alliances.

OUR MISSION

Promote diversity in the legal profession by fostering successful relationships among preeminent minority and women owned law firms and private/public entities.

OUR VISION

Achieve equity in legal opportunity through minority and women owned law firms.

OUR GOALS

CRITERIA FOR ADMISSION

- Certified as a minority, women or LGBT owned, operated, managed and controlled (51% or more) firm.
 Must be certified by the National Minority Supplier Development Council (NMSDC), the Women's Business Enterprise National Council (WBENC), or The National Gay and Lesbian Chamber of Commerce (NGLCC).

Our goal is to have a blend of minority, women and LGBT owned law firms, dispersed geographically across the United States, representing a variety of corporate law expertise.

We also work with clients to develop strategies to minimize the potential of class action certification, and zealously defend cases that are brought to trial.

Our diverse science counsel assignments and many successful Daubert challenges give us uncommon fluency in science, medicine, and medical technology. Our team includes an LMG "Life Sciences Star" and a medical device engineer with five patents.

Commercial Litigation – We represent corporations, businesses, and individuals in connection with a variety of commercial matters including class action defense, antitrust issues, sales practice matters, licensing and registration issues, breach of non-compete and royalty agreements, personal property and non-residential real property leases, distributor agreements, replevins, prejudgment seizures, real estate matters, and all types of commercial-related matters.

Food Industry Defense – Our attorneys provide legal advice and counsel to clients faced with potential regulatory actions, product recalls, supplier disputes, contamination source identification, ingredients (such as diacetyl), and evidence preservation matters.

Labor and Employment Lawyers

BurnsBarton is a WBENC and NAMWOLF certified law firm, founded in 2012.

We are a group of Big Law attorneys who have gone small to provide excellent client service at a lower cost. Without the bureaucracy and overhead that comes with a large firm, our lawyers can focus on what they do best: advising and defending employers efficiently, effectively, and successfully. Our firm helps employers in every aspect of human resource law. We counsel our clients on a day-to-day basis to find creative employment solutions that avoid claims. But when claims inevitably arise, we defend our clients in litigation ranging from single-plaintiff discrimination claims to nationwide wage and hour class action lawsuits. We also assist our employer-clients with breach of contract and restrictive covenant lawsuits. We have earned a high degree of trust and loyalty from our clients because of the exceptional results we achieve for them, the high level of client service we provide, and the cost-effectiveness of our representation.

The lawyers at CHEN MALIN LLP practice at the intersection of complex transactions and litigation. We eschew playbooks when solving problems, and our approach impacts results. Defying convention in the IT industry, we secured major concessions from vendors that later formed the basis for multiple 8-figure recoveries for our client. In bet-the-company litigation, we have multiple trial and pre-trial victories against teams from AmLaw 100 and well-known plaintiff's firms. In each instance, our clients were successful when observers expected adverse results. Our clients include multiple Fortune 100 and Global Fortune 500 companies, and they entrust us with contracts that impact 11-figures in annual operating revenues and litigations when the stakes matter.

Counter-parties have sought our advice after negotiations have concluded. We have won cases using theories that the same courts have rejected—when those theories were advanced by others. We are one of a handful of teams in the country that have successfully litigated a F/RAND (patent) case to verdict. And our examinations of opposing witnesses have repeatedly had case-dispositive effect.

What our clients say

- " One of the most effective and efficient counsel I have ever worked with
- Great understanding of business operation(s)
- Coalesces ... technical knowledge ... legal acumen ... and negotiation skills to provide ... exceptional legal advice in a 'user-friendly' manner
- A strong trial lawyer ... admired for his ability to assimilate and simplify complex technological details in IP disputes of all kinds
- His extensive expertise and abilities as a litigator, negotiator and advocate are obvious

At Kuchler Polk Weiner, experience, integrity and an unrelenting desire to achieve success for our clients are our guiding principles.

KUCHLER POLK WEINER ON DIVERSITY

Kuchler Polk Weiner is a certified Women's Business Enterprise ("WBE"). Our three founding partners are women, one of whom is also a minority.

To us, diversity is about our client often being the only party in the courtroom with female or minority lawyers who actually have a speaking role and are in command of the litigation. We feel diversity is about having corporate clients who truly trust us with their complex litigation and not simply the "small stuff." Diversity is about having jurors anxious to see us in action to determine if we can "hold our own" against the more traditional gray-suited lawyers and finding that we do more than just hold our own. Diversity is about being able to relate to that working mom on the jury because we are working parents, ourselves. Diversity is about speaking the language of the everyday person who just happens to be sitting on the bench or in the jury box because we are everyday people. Diversity is who we are – not something we do. Because of who we are, our female trial lawyers are in high demand with our Fortune 500 clients and we're achieving great trial results for them.

TRIALS & ARBITRATIONS

150+ Trials; 45+ Arbitrations; $300 Million+ Recovered; Complete Defense Verdicts

Not all lawyers are created equal. It is no secret that most business lawyers have limited, if any, trial experience. Not us. Our attorneys have tried or arbitrated bet-the-company cases. Because of our trial experience and success, we are often hired by clients on the eve of trial. This also enables us to get better settlements because opposing counsel know that we are not afraid to try cases. Our attorneys were trained and excelled at some of the best known firms in the country such as Quinn Emanuel, Jones Day, Paul Hastings and Morgan Lewis, as well as key government agencies including the Office of the United States Attorney, the Office of the Federal Public Defender, and the Los Angeles and San Francisco City Attorney's Offices. We have tried cases in several Federal and State jurisdictions, and across nine states. We have also arbitrated matters at leading arbitration institutions (AAA, JAMS, et al.).

ABOUT THE FIRM

We opened our commercial litigation practice in 2013, drawing from the ranks of top-tier trial lawyers who represent large and respected institutions in complex lawsuits throughout the United States. Our lawyers come from big firms – Morgan, Lewis & Bockius, Hunton & Williams, Skadden Arps, DLA Piper, Ropes & Gray, Boies Schiller and others ranked in the Am Law 100 – but are not bound by big firm mentality. Most of us are also former federal law clerks. And all of us have substantial expertise in high-stakes litigation, notably financial services, insurance disputes, class actions, and IP.

Our depth of experience has convinced clients such as JPMorgan Chase Bank, N.A., Apple, Volvo Financial, McDonald's, Michaels, and other Fortune 500's to hire us.

Our flourishing firm has grown from 2 to 20 lawyers in its first 5 years. Still a boutique, our business approach is lean and hungry, offering our clients better results at lower cost than our multi-layered competitors.

The firm handled the landmark medical marijuana case in the State to date: a challenge to its client's (an employer's) ability to fire a medical marijuana user who tested positive for THC in a random drug test. After oral argument last year, the Colorado Supreme Court issued a unanimous decision in favor of employers in June 2015.

The firm is only a half dozen attorneys, but it is small by design. Our matters are staffed sufficiently, but leanly. Although most arrangements are based on some form of the hourly-rate model, the firm's attorneys have the ability to work with different types of rate structures. They work on numerous cases that are provided from referrals (including opposing counsel), or past clients. Martinez Law Group understands that the most powerful recommendations come from past experiences and word of mouth.

The firm's attorneys have received numerous recognitions, including ratings of AV Preeminent® by Martindale-Hubbell, Colorado Super Lawyers, Top 100 Trial Lawyers, Top Attorneys, and The Best Lawyers in America. For the past few years, the Firm has been designated as a Go-To Law Firm® for the Top 500 Companies.

Our Clients:

Martinez Law Group's clients range from individuals to Fortune 100 companies in various industries, including engineering, satellite broadcasting, utilities, homebuilding, travel and hospitality. In addition to representing companies of all sizes, the firm handles a select number of plaintiff's cases, including prosecution of trade secret, and non-competition disputes, as well as class and collective actions. Martinez Law Group also works with national firms as co-counsel or local counsel for clients in Colorado.

About the Firm's Founding Member:

Meghan Martinez worked for a dozen years at a large national firm (including seven years as partner and as co-chair of that firm's Employment Department) before deciding to form her own law firm. "I enjoy establishing strong working relationships with our clients and being able to participate meaningfully in the way they do business. From a smaller firm, I can provide the same quality of services for clients, while offering flexible and creative billing options."

We are battle-tested in cross-border arbitration all over—from a Spanish-language arbitration under Ecuadorian law in Mexico City to an English-language arbitration in New York under Mexican law for a Dutch client. Our multilingual and multicultural lawyers are uniquely equipped to assist you in resolving your international disputes through arbitration.

Rivero Mestre has represented clients in disputes administered by the International Chamber of Commerce, the American Arbitration Association (including its International Center for Dispute Resolution), JAMS, FINRA, NYSE, Stockholm Chamber of Commerce, and the Caracas Chamber of Commerce, as well as in "ad hoc" arbitrations. Reflecting the excellent reputation the firm enjoys, from time to time our lawyers are nominated to serve as arbitrators by experienced litigators at other major firms.

Internal Investigations

If your company needs an internal investigation, you have a dangerous situation that requires highly-skilled and experienced outside counsel. Such investigations pose a thicket of potential problems, like privilege waiver and independence challenges. Rivero Mestre has conducted internal corporate investigations in the United States and in foreign countries involving varied allegations of wrongdoing from securities fraud to accounting malpractice to Foreign Corrupt Practices, while crossing languages, borders, and cultures.

We have also represented companies and boards in derivative and other litigation related to internal investigations, and we have advised clients about their rights under D&O insurance policies.

White Collar Criminal Defense

Rivero Mestre's highly-skilled team of white-collar practitioners has represented public officials, executives, managers, corporations, and professionals in the most sensitive of regulatory, state, and federal investigations, and at all stages of white-collar criminal litigation in federal and state courts.

We have defended our clients against allegations of corporate misconduct and personal criminal liability in every imaginable sector of the economy including: securities, banking, financial services, accounting, government contracting and procurement, health care, environmental, taxes, insurance, bankruptcy, computer and intellectual property, and international trade and investment. We also have substantial experience with the complexities of the Foreign Corrupt Practices Act, the money-laundering statutes, and forfeiture laws.

What are you looking for when you hire a legal team to defend your company?

We take care of business. Whether defending manufacturers in product liability actions, representing companies in catastrophic personal injury actions, protecting the reputation of major theme parks, advocating the commercial interests of banks and financial institutions, or following the needs of a growing region, our practice focuses on representing the interests of businesses from around the globe.

We understand the priorities of General Counsel. Our attorneys have devoted their entire legal careers to representing the interests of small to Fortune 10 companies in litigation settings. We are comfortable in the Boardroom or the Courtroom, and in either we strive to further the interests of our clients.

We believe in mediation and reasonableness. We encourage our clients and adversaries to resolve their differences amicably if they can. But alternative resolution is not the solution in every case and we strongly believe that a right to trial by jury is as important to a business as it is to an individual.

Litigation is not cheap, easy, or for the faint of heart. However, when litigation is appropriate or unavoidable, we work closely with our clients to develop a comprehensive strategic litigation plan and we strive to achieve their goals in efficient and economical ways. We offer electronic billing, alternate billing alternatives, detailed budgeting, and close communication with case handlers to avoid surprises.

We pride ourselves on being consummate professionals who offer our clients quality, leadership, commitment, and diversity. Our peer-reviewed accolades and our network of long term institutional clients speak for themselves. You can learn more about each by visiting our website, or our Facebook or Twitter accounts.

We serve on the following NAMWOLF Practice Area Committees which reflect our experience and focus:

- Product Liability
- · Restaurant, Retail & Hospitality
- Commercial Litigation

Our office is centrally located in Orlando, Florida. We practice throughout the State, in every major metropolitan area, and in every U.S. District Court in the State. We invite you to examine our credentials, consider our experience, and ask questions.

Obtained non-suit in a case involving the death of a 14-year-old with a known and documented heart condition (hypo tropic cardiomyopathy), who died while participating in a physical education course. FIRM PROFILE

Created in 2000, Lori S. C. Yokoyama & Associates, P.C., is a wholly owned female Asian American law firm in Chicago. The Firm has a combined litigation history of over 70 years. As our Firm has represented Fortune 500 companies and professional individuals in over 40 jury trials, and hundreds of mediations, arbitrations and pre-trials, we have proven ourselves as a highly qualified Litigation and Consulting firm. The Firm is engaged in the defense and prosecution of commercial/civil litigation and transactional matters. Martindale-Hubbell has bestowed its highest rating, "AV," upon Ms. Yokoyama for over 25 years. Currently, the substantial majority of our practice remains in litigation and transactional matters with an emphasis on Employment, Torts and Contracts. The transactional matters handled by the Firm include establishing and incorporating business entities, partnership agreements, commercial leases and operating agreements. We have also represented clients in matters involving intellectual property and professional service contracts.

In addition to her J.D., Ms. Yokoyama received her MBA from Kellogg School of Management/Northwestern University, so she fully understands the business environment, meeting budgets and deadlines. As a Professor of Law teaching Advance Trial Advocacy, Ms. Yokoyama's interaction with her students keeps her abreast of the ever-changing approaches to successful jury appeals and trials.

Each matter assigned to the Firm is supervised by a Partner. The Partner will be the lead on all transactional matters and prepare all analysis and assessments relative to liability. The Associate formally assigned to the file will provide support, i.e., assist in the preparation of responsive pleadings, written and oral discovery, interview and attend depositions; appear in court for status calls and conduct binding arbitrations. Our intimate size allows each member of the Firm to have a working knowledge of every active file in the office, thus ensuring that each of our clients receive concise and timely status reports and responses to their inquiries.
