

ABOUT

From incorporation to divestiture, and at every transition along the way, businesses demand precise and reliable transactional legal services to optimize their goals and maximize their value. The highly skilled and pre-screened minority and women owned law firms of the NAMWOLF Transactional Practice Area Committee have deep experience in the full breadth of transactional law disciplines. Through the Transactional Practice Area Committee, NAMWOLF strives to facilitate opportunities for major companies and NAMWOLF member firms to develop mutually beneficial partnerships to meet the transactional legal needs of NAMWOLF member corporations and promote diversity in the profession

CORPORATE, M&A,
& SECURITIES

The Corporate, M&A & Securities Subcommittee of the Transactional Practice Area Committee serves as a vehicle to build relationships between its members and businesses with needs in the practice areas encompassed by the Subcommittee. Our members are talented NAMWOLF firms and lawyers who specialize in a wide array of domestic and international corporate, M&A and securities transactions and who possess a wealth of experience in such practice areas. Through the sharing of the collective experience of its members, the Subcommittee seeks to increase the knowledge and expertise of other NAMWOLF member firms, corporate partners and in-house counsels.

BANKING &amp; FINANCE

The Banking and Finance Subcommittee of the Transactional Practice Area Committee serves as an informational resource and relationship bridge between its members and businesses in the banking and finance industries. Our members are talented lawyers with experience in a wide array of domestic and international banking and finance transactions and regulatory matters. The Subcommittee seeks to leverage the collective experience of its members to promote information exchange and professional development among NAMWOLF member firms, corporate partners and in-house counsels.

IMMIGRATION

The Immigration Subcommittee of the Transactional PAC is a network of minority and women-owned firms that specialize in providing high-quality immigration services. Our goal is to build mutually beneficial relationships between our members and businesses with immigration needs. Our members are talented and experienced NAMWOLF firms and lawyers who share and promote the depth of knowledge and expertise with other NAMWOLF members, their partners and in-house counsel. They are dedicated to highest quality services for employers and their employees, cost effective assistance, and compliance solutions.

Our firms are capable of serving clients in all states and numerous languages.

TECHNOLOGY

The Technology Subcommittee of the Transactional Practice Area Committee comprises member firms that specialize in a full range of technology-focused, legal services. Our practices encompass complex transactions, advanced technologies, privacy, cybersecurity, information technology, and other technology-based services. Members include lawyers that have held leadership positions within AmLaw 100 firms and Fortune 100 companies, and that are leading transactions that impact over 11 figures in annual operating revenues. Clients served by our member firms range from start-ups to Fortune 100 to Global Fortune 500 companies.

TAX

The Tax Subcommittee of the Transactional Practice Area Committee's member firms have helped numerous clients of all sizes navigate difficult tax issues. The range of matters handled by firms extends to tax-free spin-offs, tax-exempt entity restructurings, and complex capital matters arising in joint ventures. Attorneys at firms include LLM credentialed tax attorneys and specialists with considerable experience in seeking guidance and rulings from the IRS and litigating and resolving tax disputes.

REAL ESTATE

The Real Estate Subcommittee consists of experienced real estate lawyers from member firms across the country. Our members handle sophisticated transactions for companies and financial institutions with office, commercial, retail, industrial, warehouse, mixed use projects and other assets for development, acquisition, disposition, financing, and leasing. The experience base of our members is broad and includes providing clients with creative solutions in the areas of land use, construction, debt and equity financing, EB-5 financing, eminent domain, and redevelopment.
