Trials Practice Area Committee

NAMWOLF's Trials Practice Area Committee ("Trials PAC") consists of attorneys and law firms with significant, demonstrated trial experience. Members of the Trials PAC have experience trying a wide range of cases, including class action; business and commercial litigation; mass tort; complex and catastrophic injury; employment discrimination; wage and hour; ERISA; trade secret violation; breach of contract; product and premises liability; professional liability; securities liability; software; defect; and trademark, copyright and other intellectual property infringement matters. Collectively, the members of the NAMWOLF Trials PAC try cases in federal and state courts across the country, in the District of Columbia, in Puerto Rico and in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The NAMWOLF Trials PAC seeks to showcase the talents of experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys, provide a resource for in-house counsel looking to work with experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys on legal matters heading to trial, and improve the skill level of emerging minority and women trial attorneys.

Collectively, NAMWOLF Trials PAC members are estimated to have spent 52,070 days in trial, with a total of 7,684 jury trials and 16,512 bench trials. Trials PAC members have collectively handled an estimated total of 4,615 arbitrations.

Tough cases are our business.

Over the last twenty-five years, our trial lawyers have successfully handled many of the most complex and high-profile cases in Washington and the Pacific Northwest. Clients turn to us for practical, common-sense advice, and tenacious advocacy, when businesses and reputations are on the line.

Calfo Eakes & Ostrovsky was recently ranked as one of Seattle's top commercial litigation and white collar criminal defense firms by Chambers & Partners USA.

Recent Litigation Experience

CEO of national real estate syndication firm in a matter arising from the company's sale of $4 billion in commercial real estate through private placement and other investment offerings. Defended client in a three-month trial in federal district court alleging securities, mail and wire fraud.

Representation of King County in age, race, and disability discrimination suit brought by former employee of wastewater treatment division. After a four-week trial in King County Superior Court, the jury unanimously found in favor of King County on all claims. The jury's verdict was recently affirmed on appeal, *Marin v. The lawyers at CHEN MALIN LLP practice at the intersection of complex transactions and litigation. We are problem solvers, and our record speaks for itself. We secured contract terms from major IT vendors that later formed the basis for multiple 8-figure recoveries for our client—without litigation. Similarly, we helped our clients emerge with trial victories when observers expected adverse results—against teams from AmLaw 100 firms. Our clients, which include multiple Fortune 100 and Global Fortune 500 companies, entrust us with contracts that impact 11-figures in annual operating revenues and bet-the-company litigation.

Counter-parties have sought our advice on contracts after negotiating against us. We have won cases, whether at trials or through summary judgment or claim construction, using theories that the same courts have rejected—when those theories were advanced by others. We are one of a handful of teams in the country that have successfully litigated a F/RAND (patent) case to verdict; and our cross examinations of opposing experts have been case-dispositive.

What our clients say

“ One of the most effective and efficient counsel I have ever worked with ”

“ Great understanding of business operation(s) ”

“ Coalesces ... technical knowledge ... legal acumen ... and negotiation skills to provide ... exceptional legal advice in a 'user-friendly' manner ”

“ A strong trial lawyer ... admired for his ability to assimilate and simplify complex technological details in IP disputes of all kinds ”

“ His extensive expertise and abilities as a litigator, negotiator and advocate are obvious ”

TRIALS & ARBITRATIONS

150+ Trials; 45+ Arbitrations;
$150 Million+ Recovered; Complete Defense Verdicts

Not all lawyers are created equal. It is no secret that most business lawyers have limited, if any, trial experience. Not us. Our attorneys have tried or arbitrated bet-the-company cases. Because of our trial experience and success, we are often hired by clients on the eve of trial. This also enables us to get better settlements because opposing counsel know that we are not afraid to try cases. Our attorneys were trained and excelled at some of the best known firms in the country such as Quinn Emanuel, Jones Day, Paul Hastings and Morgan Lewis, as well as key government agencies including the Office of the United States Attorney, the Office of the Federal Public Defender, and the Los Angeles and San Francisco City Attorney's Offices. We have tried cases in several Federal and State jurisdictions, and across nine states. We have also arbitrated matters at leading arbitration institutions (AAA, JAMS, et al.).

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Obtained complete defense verdict for AU Optronics in a five-day federal trial, resulting in a finding of non-infringement of four LG Display patents and rejecting LG Display's $700 million damage claim.
- Obtained $1.7 million in federal trial in breach of contract action on behalf of VIZIO against contract manufacturer for manufacturing defects.
- Obtained $1.6 million for plaintiff in 2-week jury trial over dispute over dilution of minority shareholder's shares by majority shareholder.
- Obtained complete defense jury verdicts in numerous employment cases involving allegations of race, religion and national origin discrimination, and sexual harassment.
- Obtained complete defense jury verdict in breach of contract suit in which plaintiffs sought $2 million in damages.
- Obtained complete defense verdict in an investment fraud and breach of fiduciary duty trial.
- Obtained complete defense arbitration award for client against $18 million breach of contract claim brought by subsidiaries of a $1.4 billion Japanese conglomerate, where plaintiffs walked away with no net monetary damages.
- Obtained complete defense arbitration award on behalf of leading flash memory storage device manufacturer in AAA arbitration over breach of distributorship agreement.
- Obtained six-figure damages and attorney's fees award in trial against commercial tenant.
- Obtained reversal of jury verdict on age discrimination claims, based on insufficiency of the evidence.
- Lead trial counsel for defendant in 2-week jury trial over construction dispute; jury returned verdict of less than 13% of plaintiffs request for damages; verdict was much less than what client offered to settle the case.

SANCHEZ & AMADOR, LLP

Employment and Business Trial Team

Who We Are

A diverse team of employment and business trial lawyers representing regional and national organizations in courts, arbitrations, and agency proceedings throughout California. For full biographies, please visit www.sanchez-amador.com.

Who We Represent

Wells Fargo Bank, McDonald's Corporation, Albertsons, JPMorgan Chase, PG&E, Harley-Davidson, Bristol Farms, Toll Brothers, Southern California Gas Co., and similar organizations.

We have strong, collaborative relationships with our clients and welcome the opportunity to connect you with in-house references to discuss our responsiveness, results, creativity and cost-effectiveness. Our lawyers have successfully taken cases to trial and arbitration in employment, real property, fraud and other business disputes.

Results

We win. A lot. We recently obtained a defense verdict for a Fortune 500 company in a difficult wrongful termination jury trial in one the riskiest places for major employers to try a case—the Los Angeles County Superior Court.

Our litigation team has extensive trial experience. Our litigation partners have first-chair trial experience, most of our associates have second-chaired at least one jury trial and one of our associates has first chaired numerous bench trials. A seasoned trial judge called our managing partner, Richard Amador, “one of the finest trial lawyers in the profession; his reputation for honesty and integrity is impeccable.”

We focus only on what needs to be done to get results for our clients. We really think about tactics and strategy and never take a cookie-cutter approach. And we stick to what we do best: California employment and business litigation.

How We Work

We typically assign a two-lawyer team on each litigation matter. On our dime, all written work product gets an extra review to ensure our quality standards are met, and we teach trial skills to all our lawyers because knowing how to try a case well makes for superior lawyering in the day-to-day work that wins most cases. We focus relentlessly on client service, striving to make our clients' jobs easier.
