About the PAC

Companies in the Restaurant, Retail, and Hospitality industries have long recognized the value of diversity and inclusion in all aspects of their businesses because their stakeholders—customers, suppliers, investors, and regulators—expect nothing less. The Restaurant, Retail, and Hospitality Practice Area Committee (“RRH PAC”) of NAMWOLF offers clients in these industries a one-stop shop for identifying top lawyers practicing in this arena.

Members of the RRH PAC specialize in representing clients with a particular focus on the issues unique to these industries. Our firms have extensive experience representing clients in a wide array of matters including:

- » Health and safety issues at RRH facilities, including advising on risk management and defending against personal injury and property claims;
- » Real estate transactions and litigation involving leasing, zoning, local compliance and eminent domain;
- » Premises liability, product liability, professional malpractice, and defamation;
- » Food and beverage issues including licensing, food safety, product manufacturing, and distribution;
- » Labor and employment issues including workers’ compensation, wage and hour, immigration, discrimination, employee benefits and workplace safety;
- » Intellectual property issues including copyright and trademark protection and infringement matters;
- » New media and technology matters including licensing, fair trade regulation, and web-based transactions; and
- » Commercial and customer litigation including pursuing and defending claims against suppliers, defending fair credit and other consumer actions.

HOSPITALITY, SPORTS & ENTERTAINMENT

We represent hospitality, sports and entertainment clients, including restaurants, hotels, event venues, sports teams, food-service providers, internet travel sites, management companies, meeting planners, filmmakers, musicians and authors, in all aspects of their legal needs. Our services range from defending clients in private litigation and government investigations to advising them on how to structure business transactions to avoid expensive disputes in the future. Because we have unique industry expertise, we do not have to waste client time getting up to speed. We know what is important to our clients because we know what it takes for them to succeed. By drawing upon that expertise, we craft legal strategic plans that suits each client's needs. As part of our representation, we counsel clients on how to reduce the risk of litigation through carefully drafted agreements and, should a dispute arise, how to reduce their litigation costs through electronic discovery policies, risk management and alternate dispute resolution.

Our track record achieving successful results in federal and state courts, as well as arbitration and mediation, comes from combining top notch legal skills with a singular understanding of our client's business. We negotiate and draft purchase and sale agreements and management agreements for a variety of hospitality clients. In addition, we advise clients regarding federal and state regulatory and statutory changes that affect their businesses, such as providing assistance regarding wastewater discharge compliance, representing wholesalers in the sale of distributorships and brand transfers, helping individuals navigate the requirements for opening a bar or restaurant and buying and selling a liquor license. We have also litigated disputes arising out of purchase and sale agreements, management agreements, vendor and customer contracts, and government enforcement actions. By appreciating the unique challenges hospitality, sports and entertainment businesses face, we are able to pursue our clients' claims vigorously and defend them against private and public claims cost-effectively, as well as protect their interests in deals.

OUR SERVICES:

- Business Counseling: We counsel start-ups and established industry clients on day-to-day business and legal challenges, as well as important industry issues, such as drafting and negotiating distribution and franchising agreements. We also counsel clients on the legality of different marketing, advertising, and labeling practices.
- Corporate: We assist businesses at every developmental stage, starting with the formation and incorporation of the business. We work as a team with management, supplementing their in-house staff and providing advice on corporate governance, mergers and acquisitions, sales of business, brand swaps, best business practices, and employment agreements, among other topics.
- Licensing: We represent our clients in both federal and state licensing matters, from the Pennsylvania Liquor Control Board, the New Jersey Division of Alcoholic Beverage Control, the Ohio Division of Liquor Control and the Kentucky Alcohol Beverage Control to the Alcohol and Tobacco Tax and Trade Bureau and the Federal Trade Commission. While regulations and licensing laws vary from jurisdiction to jurisdiction, our attorneys can guide you through even the most difficult licensing processes, from initial issuance or license purchase negotiation to license transfers.
- Litigation and Advocacy: Disputes can arise in even the best run businesses, and with extensive governmental regulations, jurisdiction-specific franchise statutes, disparate manufacturing and retail partners, and unforeseen distribution hassles, the hospitality industry has its share of litigation matters. We are prepared to litigate regulatory infractions, contract disputes, trade secret issues, termination actions, regulatory enforcement actions, supplier consent during sale of distributorship, and brand extensions.
