Trials Practice Area Committee

The NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee (“Trials PAC”) consists of attorneys and law firms with significant, demonstrated trial experience. Members of the Trials PAC have experience trying a wide range of cases, including class action; business and commercial litigation; mass tort; complex and catastrophic injury; employment discrimination; wage and hour; ERISA; trade secret violation; breach of contract; product and premises liability; professional liability; securities liability; and trademark, copyright and other intellectual property infringement matters. Collectively, the members of the Trials PAC try cases in federal and state courts across the country, in the District of Columbia, in Puerto Rico and in the U.S. Virgin Islands. The Trials PAC seeks to showcase the talents of experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys, provide a resource for in-house counsel looking to work with experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys on legal matters heading to trial, and improve the skill level of emerging minority and women trial lawyers.

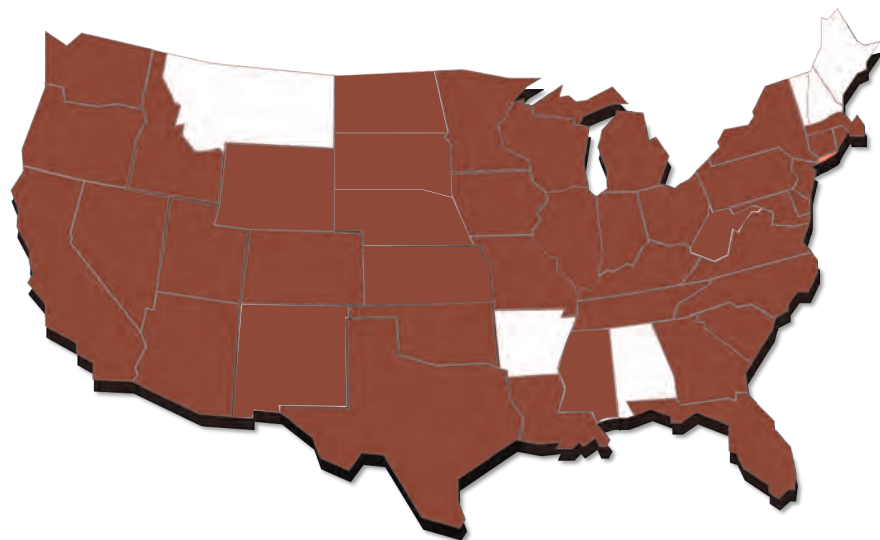

Collectively, Trials PAC members are estimated to have spent 44,297 days in trial, with a total of 6,109 jury trials and 6,679 bench trials. Trials PAC members have collectively handled an estimated total of 3,580 arbitrations.

CALFO EAKES & OSTROVSKY

Tough cases are our business.

Over the last twenty-five years, our trial lawyers have successfully handled many of the most complex and high-profile cases in Washington and the Pacific Northwest. Clients turn to us for practical, common-sense advice, and tenacious advocacy, when businesses and reputations are on the line.

Calfo Eakes & Ostrovsky was recently ranked as one of Seattle's top commercial litigation and white collar criminal defense firms by Chambers & Partners USA.

Recent Litigation Experience

CEO of national real estate syndication firm in a matter arising from the company's sale of $4 billion in commercial real estate through private placement and other investment offerings. Defended client in a three-month trial in federal district court alleging securities, mail and wire fraud.

Representation of King County in age, race, and disability discrimination suit brought by former employee of wastewater treatment division. After a four-week trial in King County Superior Court, the jury unanimously found in favor of King County on all claims. The jury's verdict was recently affirmed on appeal, Marin v. King County, No. 72666-8-1 (Div. 1, June 6, 2016). The plaintiff's motion for discretionary review by the Washington Supreme Court was denied.

President of native-owned, Canadian cigarette distribution company on tax evasion, obstruction of justice and perjury charges. After a jury trial, the government dismissed all charges.

Representation of publicly-elected Washington State Auditor Troy Kelley in prosecution alleging wire fraud, money laundering, perjury, tax fraud and false statements. After a six-week jury trial, we obtained an acquittal on the false statement charges and the jury deadlocked on all remaining counts.

The lawyers at CHEN MALIN LLP practice at the intersection of complex transactions and litigation. We eschew playbooks when solving problems, and our approach impacts results. Defying convention in the IT industry, we secured major concessions from vendors that later formed the basis for multiple 8-figure recoveries for our client. In bet-the-company litigation, we have multiple trial and pre-trial victories against teams from AmLaw 100 and well-known plaintiff's firms. In each instance, our clients were successful when observers expected adverse results. Our clients include multiple Fortune 100 and Global Fortune 500 companies, and they entrust us with contracts that impact 11-figures in annual operating revenues and litigations when the stakes matter.

Counter-parties have sought our advice after negotiations have concluded. We have won cases using theories that the same courts have rejected—when those theories were advanced by others. We are one of a handful of teams in the country that have successfully litigated a F/RAND (patent) case to verdict. And our examinations of opposing witnesses have repeatedly had case-dispositive effect.

What our clients say

“ One of the most effective and efficient counsel I have ever worked with ”

“ Great understanding of business operation(s) ”

“ Coalesces ... technical knowledge ... legal acumen ... and negotiation skills to provide ... exceptional legal advice in a 'user-friendly' manner ”

“ A strong trial lawyer ... admired for his ability to assimilate and simplify complex technological details in IP disputes of all kinds ”

“ His extensive expertise and abilities as a litigator, negotiator and advocate are obvious ”

Firm Overview

WE'RE THE GIANT KILLERS

We thrive on the tough cases: the ones where your company, fortune or liberty are on the line. Bring us your biggest problem to solve. We'll get it done.

Members of Keller/Anderle LLP have over 325 jury trials among them, with an unparalleled record of success. We win and win big. And we square off against some of the nation's biggest firms. Our practice focuses on high-stakes litigation of all types – the really difficult cases – including commercial, intellectual property, securities, bad faith, white collar criminal defense, class actions, and entertainment/sports.

We see ourselves as old-fashioned barristers who can try any kind of case, and we've proven it by prevailing against some of the nation's major law firms. In just the last eight years we've won judgments of over $925 million and settled others for eight figures. The firm includes some of the best minds in the profession – and some of the most intuitive.

WE'RE RIGHT AT HOME IN TRIAL

Most major law firms have litigation partners with very little – and surprisingly often, absolutely no – jury trial experience. When trial looms, they may settle the case for far less (or more) than it's worth, because of fear or merely because they have no idea what to do in front of actual jurors.

We try cases. All of our preparation is done with trial in mind. We're not interested in running up billable hours for their own sake. We use pre-trial discovery to support and craft our story at trial. We don't make needless motions, take irrelevant depositions or expend resources in unwarranted adversarial jousting. We invest our time and energy advancing the ball and furthering our strategy. Everything we do is oriented toward achieving a successful outcome.

Most cases never make it to trial. But great trial lawyers get the great settlements. When the other side knows you try and win cases, are meticulously prepared and relish the battle, the client gets maximum value. The opposite is true, too – when the other side knows you have no track record at trial and smells blood in the water, settlement value is greatly diminished.

ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION PROS

The same skills that win cases before juries come into play during arbitration and mediation. Knowing how to present evidence in a compelling, persuasive way to judges and arbitrators is a rare skill. They, too, can tell a top trial lawyer when they see one – and factor that into what your case is worth.

CLIENT-CENTERED FEE ARRANGEMENTS

"Biglaw" knows just one way of operating: the billable hour. Straight billable-hour fee arrangements encourage fee inflation, needlessly high staffing, and bloated discovery and motion practice. With layers of associates and senior associates, junior partners and senior partners on each case, whole teams of lawyers are used to produce the simplest memos. Each attorney knows only a portion of the case, and "lead counsel" may not know much at all without briefing from others. Every court appearance involves a parade.

On civil cases we prefer to align our interests with yours. We work with you to negotiate flat, contingency, reverse-contingency and hybrid fees, the latter at substantially reduced rates from our normal hourly. We think it's better for everyone when we have skin in the game. And we staff our cases leanly. The result? Each team member knows the whole case, and can tell you exactly what is going on at any time. You get efficient, surgical handling of your case.

Some clients are more comfortable with hourly billing, or perhaps the case is of a type that simply doesn't lend itself to alternative fee arrangements. We're happy to sign hourly fee agreements, too. But you still benefit from our firm culture of lean, intense staffing, and a targeted approach to litigation.

A REPUTATION FOR EXCELLENCE, AND THE AWARDS TO PROVE IT

Keller/Anderle LLP is 100% Women-Owned. Our lawyers are recognized by our peers as the best of the best. Our awards include California Lawyer Magazine Attorneys of the Year (the CLAY Awards) in Litigation; The Lawdragon 500 Leading Lawyers in America; annual inclusion in The Best Lawyers in America (including "Lawyer of the Year" recognition); Los Angeles Magazine's Super Lawyers, The Los Angeles and San Francisco Daily Journal's "Top 100 Lawyers in California" and "Top Women Lawyers" lists; The San Francisco Recorder, Attorneys of the Year; election to the Litigation Counsel of America; the National Trial Lawyers Top 100 Trial Lawyers; The Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum; awards from the Orange County Trial Lawyers Association as Business Litigation Attorney of the Year and Criminal Defense Attorney of the Year, and many more.

Keller/Anderle LLP is rated Tier One by U.S. News and World Report, an honor generally reserved for much larger law firms.

And name partner Jennifer Keller is among the most sought-after speakers both in California and nationally for seminars on trial tactics, as well as for events in the legal community.

LEADERS IN THE BAR

We believe in service to the bar and the community beyond it, which has the ancillary benefit of giving us influence with and access to decision-makers in many fields.

Our lawyers have served as President of the Orange County Bar Association, president and board members of its charitable fund, on various committees of the OCBA, the board of Orange County Women Lawyers, the State Bar Blue Ribbon Commission on Jury Reform, the California State Bar Board of Legal Specialization, the Regional Board of the Anti-Defamation League, the Board of Directors of the Trusteeship for the Betterment of Women, the Board of Trustees for the UC Hastings Foundation, the Board of Advisors of Chapman University Dale Fowler School of Law, and the Board of Trustees of Chapman University.

EFFECTIVE USE OF TECHNOLOGY

We use the latest technology to do outstanding work with fewer lawyers in a more efficient way. We compile databases, use transcript search programs, computerized legal research, trial presentation software and other programs in innovative ways that allow us to compete with much larger firms. We are always looking for ways to streamline our operations, which saves the client money while making us more nimble as trial lawyers.

Kim Vaughan Lerner LLP has extensive experience in complex commercial litigation, employment litigation and insurance defense matters in Florida state and federal courts. We have demonstrated our ability to handle significant cases successfully to jury verdict, bench trial, or final arbitral hearing. In the last eight years, we have taken fourteen matters to trial, including defending a tobacco manufacturer in a products liability trial, defending a chemical manufacturer/distributor in an environmental contamination trial, and defending a hospitality client in a transgender employment trial.

We are a "go-to" firm for high stakes litigation, for matters that may impact the highest levels of any business organization, or for matters that require the utmost discretion and confidentiality. We are routinely retained in such instances because of our ability to analyze problems, offer practical advice, and work with our clients to achieve results through efficient and effective case management.

We are highly regarded by our peers in Florida, as we are ranked in Chambers USA, Super Lawyers, and several Florida attorney surveys. In addition, our firm is "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbell. At KVL Law, diversity is more than a catch phrase, it is a way of life. Nearly all of our attorneys are persons of color, and more than half of them are women. All of our lawyers share a deep commitment to our community as reflected in our extensive record of voluntary bar service, pro bono work, and community volunteer service.

We are the “real deal.” We are trial lawyers and not simply litigators. Kuchler Polk Weiner, LLC (KPW) is a boutique, civil litigation, minority and women-owned law firm. We have twenty-nine (29) lawyers, many of whom bear an AV Preeminent rating. We pride ourselves on having trial-ready female lead counsel able to handle any civil litigation matter. Our lawyers are admitted in Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, and Arkansas and have practiced pro hac vice across the country. We are often tapped to parachute into a trial-threat case in the month or two before trial to represent the client in cases across the country. Our clients value our ability to work collegially and as a virtual law firm with the clients’ established counsel in other jurisdictions to bring diversity and a depth of trial experience to their teams.

TRIAL PRACTICE: Lafayette & Kumagai is well-known for its strong trial practice. Partner Gary T. Lafayette has tried over thirty cases to verdict.

Lafayette & Kumagai has highly significant trial experience, trying complicated matters in difficult courts. Sought out for their trial expertise, the firm’s lawyers are retained to try cases that fall outside their bailiwicks, ranging from securities cases to a consumer class action in which Plaintiff’s demand exceeded $78 million. In addition to jury trials, Lafayette & Kumagai consistently prevails in bench trials, arbitrations and preliminary injunction hearings on behalf of its clients.

TRIALS & ARBITRATIONS

150+ Trials; 45+ Arbitrations;
$150 Million+ Recovered; Complete Defense Verdicts

Not all lawyers are created equal. It is no secret that most business lawyers have limited, if any, trial experience. Not us. Our attorneys have tried or arbitrated bet-the-company cases. Because of our trial experience and success, we are often hired by clients on the eve of trial. This also enables us to get better settlements because opposing counsel know that we are not afraid to try cases. Our attorneys were trained and excelled at some of the best known firms in the country such as Quinn Emanuel, Jones Day, Paul Hastings and Morgan Lewis, as well as key government agencies including the Office of the United States Attorney, the Office of the Federal Public Defender, and the Los Angeles and San Francisco City Attorney’s Offices. We have tried cases in several Federal and State jurisdictions, and across nine states. We have also arbitrated matters at leading arbitration institutions (AAA, JAMS, et al.).

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

- Obtained complete defense verdict for AU Optronics in a five-day federal trial, resulting in a finding of non-infringement of four LG Display patents and rejecting LG Display’s $700 million damage claim.
- Obtained $1.7 million in federal trial in breach of contract action on behalf of VIZIO against contract manufacturer for manufacturing defects.
- Obtained $1.6 million for plaintiff in 2-week jury trial over dispute over dilution of minority shareholder’s shares by majority shareholder.
- Obtained complete defense jury verdicts in numerous employment cases involving allegations of race, religion and national origin discrimination, and sexual harassment.
- Obtained complete defense jury verdict in breach of contract suit in which plaintiffs sought $2 million in damages.
- Obtained complete defense verdict in an investment fraud and breach of fiduciary duty trial.
- Obtained complete defense arbitration award for client against $18 million breach of contract claim brought by subsidiaries of a $1.4 billion Japanese conglomerate, where plaintiffs walked away with no net monetary damages.
- Obtained complete defense arbitration award on behalf of leading flash memory storage device manufacturer in AAA arbitration over breach of distributorship agreement.
- Obtained six-figure damages and attorney’s fees award in trial against commercial tenant.
- Obtained reversal of jury verdict on age discrimination claims, based on insufficiency of the evidence.
- Lead trial counsel for defendant in 2-week jury trial over construction dispute; jury returned verdict of less than 13% of plaintiffs request for damages; verdict was much less than what client offered to settle the case.

ABOUT THE FIRM

Mac Murray & Shuster LLP is a nationally recognized women-owned firm focused on consumer protection regulatory compliance and litigation. From entrepreneurial startups to Fortune 500 companies, we help businesses proactively manage their compliance responsibilities and establish a defensible position that mitigates risk. Led by former state regulators, including an Ohio Attorney General and three Consumer Protection Chiefs, our legal team brings an intimate knowledge of consumer protection law that only comes from having helped shape the regulatory landscape themselves.

EXPERIENCED COUNSEL

We have extensive experience nationwide with class action, complex civil, and regulatory enforcement matters before state attorneys general and federal regulatory agencies including the FCC, FTC, and CFPB. We understand not only the financial costs of litigation, but the disruption to a client’s business and potential impact on its brand and reputation. Our clients rely on us to help them identify and resolve compliance issues before they find their way to a courtroom or catch the eye of a regulator, frequently helping them avoid litigation altogether.

When litigation is unavoidable, we move quickly, decisively, and with integrity. We have obtained excellent results for clients with regulators and courts, including investigation closures, case dismissals, and settlements for tens of millions of dollars less than original demands.

Built on a foundation of strong work ethic, decades of experience and commitment to provide the best possible client service, Perez & Morris has become a strong force in the legal market in Ohio, New York and across the country. We offer value. We understand that to our clients, attorneys are an expense that directly impacts their bottom line. We do everything we can to make sure every dollar is a dollar well spent. Our attorneys have tried more than 100 cases to a jury, 300 cases to the bench and have represented clients in more than 250 arbitrations. We have spent nearly 1,000 days in the courtroom, both securing and defending against high dollar verdicts. We believe practicing law, and particularly trying cases is, in part, a creative endeavor and to get the best results, one must think outside the box. We work hard, smart and efficiently to not just meet our clients' expectations, but exceed them. For trial counsel in Ohio, Florida, Georgia, Michigan and New York, look no further than Perez & Morris.

SANCHEZ & AMADOR, LLP

Employment and Business Trial Team

Who We Are A diverse team of employment and business trial lawyers representing regional and national organizations in courts, arbitrations, and agency proceedings throughout California. For full biographies, please visit www.sanchez-amador.com.

Who We Represent Wells Fargo Bank, McDonald's Corporation, Albertsons, JPMorgan Chase, PG&E, Harley-Davidson, Bristol Farms, Toll Brothers, Southern California Gas Co., and similar organizations.

We have strong, collaborative relationships with our clients and welcome the opportunity to connect you with in-house references to discuss our responsiveness, results, creativity and cost-effectiveness. Our lawyers have successfully taken cases to trial and arbitration in employment, real property, fraud and other business disputes.

Results We win. A lot. We recently obtained a defense verdict for a Fortune 500 company in a difficult wrongful termination jury trial in one the riskiest places for major employers to try a case—the Los Angeles County Superior Court.

Our litigation team has extensive trial experience. Our litigation partners have first-chair trial experience, most of our associates have second-chaired at least one jury trial and one of our associates has first chaired numerous bench trials. A seasoned trial judge called our managing partner, Richard Amador, “one of the finest trial lawyers in the profession; his reputation for honesty and integrity is impeccable.”

We focus only on what needs to be done to get results for our clients. We really think about tactics and strategy and never take a cookie-cutter approach. And we stick to what we do best: California employment and business litigation.

How We Work We typically assign a two-lawyer team on each litigation matter. On our dime, all written work product gets an extra review to ensure our quality standards are met, and we teach trial skills to all our lawyers because knowing how to try a case well makes for superior lawyering in the day-to-day work that wins most cases. We focus relentlessly on client service, striving to make our clients' jobs easier.

Getting Results At Trial

When it comes to complex business and commercial disputes, there is almost nothing Walsh attorneys have not previously encountered. Our versatile team has represented some of the country's largest and most prestigious companies across a broad range of industries. We are equally proficient prosecuting and defending complex and multi-party litigation, and are sought after for our expertise in a multitude of subject areas, including intellectual property, labor and employment, breach of contract, unfair competition, fraudulent business practices, and business torts.

We find that the most economical strategy begins before a dispute even arises, and provide counsel on strategies to avoid litigation and minimize litigation risk. When a dispute does emerge, our priority is always to resolve the matter early, including through alternative dispute resolution techniques such as mediation and arbitration. Litigation is sometimes unavoidable, however, and in such circumstances we take an aggressive approach on behalf of our clients. Our track record speaks for itself: our litigators have successfully tried innumerable cases in state and federal courts.

Representative Matters:

- DHL v. Log-Net, D.N.J., in this 2018 two-week federal jury trial, three Walsh attorneys represented a software creator. The jury returned a contract and copyright verdict of over $14 million in favor of Walsh's client while finding basis for any of the claims by the adverse party.
- Walsh's labor and employment law practice group successfully defended a New Jersey university in an arbitration to remove an employee. Following five days of testimony, the arbitrator ruled for Walsh's client, largely based on two days of cross of the employee.
- Immunex v. Sandoz, D.N.J., in this 2018 patent law bench trial, three Walsh attorneys teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to try a series of novel patent issues. Walsh attorneys directed and crossed expert witnesses and also handled daily evidence arguments.
- In a currently pending arbitration, the firm's lead construction attorney serves as counsel to a Fortune 500 company in a dispute arising out of the construction of a corporate headquarters. It is a complex dispute over alleged construction errors leading to violations of the fire code.
- Kars 4 Kids v. America Can, D.N.J., in this 2019 trademark jury trial, two Walsh attorneys teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to try a two-week case resulting in the jury rejecting the adversary's claims. The Walsh team handled two witnesses and numerous evidence issues.

Who we work with:

willenken.com

Willenken is based on the principle that achieving great results for our clients is the paramount objective. We win more than our fair share of cases—because winning matters.

Our attorneys have the confidence to take on complexity, the ingenuity to think differently, and the tenacity to win. When clients choose Willenken, we honor their trust by putting all of our skill, talent, and spirit into obtaining favorable results, while protecting their business interests at every stage.

Willenken lawyers have tried over 150 cases to verdict or judgment. We never push our clients to accept a suboptimal settlement because we are afraid of going to trial. We view trial as an opportunity for client success, not a crisis. Our trial skills are what allow us to harness the evidence and law necessary to negotiate favorable settlements and to secure dispositive motion victories. For this reason, clients regularly ask us to handle last-minute trials; they engage us to take over for prior counsel who counted on the case to settle or just weren't prepared to take it all the way when needed. Since the start, Willenken has been the go-to firm for Fortune 500 companies for their most challenging complex litigation matters.

Notable Results

- On behalf of Motorola Solutions, we obtained a total defense victory and secured dismissal with prejudice of a bid-rigging and unfair competition lawsuit.
- On behalf of Lumens Co., Ltd., a Korean LED manufacturer, we obtained a $1 million victory and a total defense victory to $16 million in counterclaims.
- We defended the nation's largest gas utility in a five-week major personal injury trial. Although the client already stipulated to liability, we staved off punitive damages and the jury awarded less than half of the plaintiff's demand.
