The lawyers at CHEN MALIN LLP practice at the intersection of complex transactions and litigation. We eschew playbooks when solving problems, and our approach impacts results. Defying convention in the IT industry, we secured major concessions from vendors that later formed the basis for multiple 8-figure recoveries for our client. In bet-the-company litigation, we have multiple trial and pre-trial victories against teams from AmLaw 100 and well-known plaintiff's firms. In each instance, our clients were successful when observers expected adverse results. Our clients include multiple Fortune 100 and Global Fortune 500 companies, and they entrust us with contracts that impact 11-figures in annual operating revenues and litigations when the stakes matter.

Counter-parties have sought our advice after negotiations have concluded. We have won cases using theories that the same courts have rejectedwhen those theories were advanced by others. We are one of a handful of teams in the country that have successfully litigated a F/RAND (patent) case to verdict. And our examinations of opposing witnesses have repeatedly had case-dispositive effect.

Our experienced partner-level attorneys offer our clients a wealth of experience, and Culhane Meadows' innovative cloud-based practice model and use of technology allow us to work nimbly, whether in the office or on the road while keeping overhead and fees to clients well below those charged by firms with comparable experience.

We'd love to put this experience to work for you.

ABOUT THE FIRM

DTO is one of NAMWOLF's newest California firms. After spending years at big law firms and as in-house counsel for Fortune 10 companies, Will Delgado, Mark Tarango, and Megan O'Neill decided to start a law firm entirely owned by women and minorities. Seven of DTO's twelve attorneys are women, and another seven are people of color.

The firm's approach is simple: commit to learning the client's business; immediately determine what matters to them; and relentlessly pursue the client's business-driven objectives.

DTO's entrepreneurial spirit allows its stakeholders to modify rate structures and advance other cutting edge business objectives, which big law firms are unable to do.

Firm Overview

WE'RE THE GIANT KILLERS

We thrive on the tough cases: the ones where your company, fortune or liberty are on the line. Bring us your biggest problem to solve. We'll get it done.

Members of Keller/Anderle LLP have over 325 jury trials among them, with an unparalleled record of success. We win and win big. And we square off against some of the nation's biggest firms. Our practice focuses on high-stakes litigation of all types – the really difficult cases — including commercial, intellectual property, securities, bad faith, white collar criminal defense, class actions, and entertainment/sports.

We see ourselves as old-fashioned barristers who can try any kind of case, and we've proven it by prevailing against some of the nation's major law firms. In just the last eight years we've won judgments of over $925 million and settled others for eight figures. The firm includes some of the best minds in the profession – and some of the most intuitive.

WE'RE RIGHT AT HOME IN TRIAL

Most major law firms have litigation partners with very little - and surprisingly often, absolutely no - jury trial experience. When trial looms, they may settle the case for far less (or more) than it's worth, because of fear or merely because they have no idea what to do in front of actual jurors.

We try cases. All of our preparation is done with trial in mind. We're not interested in running up billable hours for their own sake. We use pre-trial discovery to support and craft our story at trial. We don't make needless motions, take irrelevant depositions or expend resources in unwarranted adversarial jousting. We invest our time and energy advancing the ball and furthering our strategy. Everything we do is oriented toward achieving a successful outcome.

Most cases never make it to trial. But great trial lawyers get the great settlements. When the other side knows you try and win cases, are meticulously prepared and relish the battle, the client gets maximum value. The opposite is true, too – when the other side knows you have no track record at trial and smells blood in the water, settlement value is greatly diminished.

ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION PROS

The same skills that win cases before juries come into play during arbitration and mediation. Knowing how to present evidence in a compelling, persuasive way to judges and arbitrators is a rare skill. They, too, can tell a top trial lawyer when they see one – and factor that into what your case is worth.

CLIENT-CENTERED FEE ARRANGEMENTS

"Biglaw" knows just one way of operating: the billable hour. Straight billable-hour fee arrangements encourage fee inflation, needlessly high staffing, and bloated discovery and motion practice. With layers of associates and senior associates, junior partners and senior partners on each case, whole teams of lawyers are used to produce the simplest memos. Each attorney knows only a portion of the case, and "lead counsel" may not know much at all without briefing from others. Every court appearance involves a parade.

Kim Vaughan Lerner LLP has extensive experience in complex commercial litigation, employment litigation and insurance defense matters in Florida state and federal courts. We have demonstrated our ability to handle significant cases successfully to jury verdict, bench trial, or final arbitral hearing. In the last eight years, we have taken fourteen matters to trial, including defending a tobacco manufacturer in a products liability trial, defending a chemical manufacturer/distributor in an environmental contamination trial, and defending a hospitality client in a transgender employment trial.

We are a "go-to" firm for high stakes litigation, for matters that may impact the highest levels of any business organization, or for matters that require the utmost discretion and confidentiality. We are routinely retained in such instances because of our ability to analyze problems, offer practical advice, and work with our clients to achieve results through efficient and effective case management.

We are highly regarded by our peers in Florida, as we are ranked in Chambers USA, Super Lawyers, and several Florida attorney surveys. In addition, our firm is "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbell. At KVL Law, diversity is more than a catch phrase, it is a way of life. Nearly all of our attorneys are persons of color, and more than half of them are women. All of our lawyers share a deep commitment to our community as reflected in our extensive record of voluntary bar service, pro bono work, and community volunteer service.

We are the "real deal." We are trial lawyers and not simply litigators. Kuchler Polk Weiner, LLC (KPW) is a boutique, civil litigation, minority and womenowned law firm. We have twenty-nine (29) lawyers, many of whom bear an AV Preeminent rating. We pride ourselves on having trial-ready female lead counsel able to handle any civil litigation matter. Our lawyers are admitted in Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, and Arkansas and have practiced pro hac vice across the country. We are often tapped to parachute into a trial-threat case in the month or two before trial to represent the client in cases across the country. Our clients value our ability to work collegially and as a virtual law firm with the clients' established counsel in other jurisdictions to bring diversity and a depth of trial experience to their teams.

Our Difference

- » We are storytellers who make complicated cases simple.
- » We shed the lawyer persona in favor of an authentic, relatable approach.
- » Where sympathies run high, we are tough on the facts but soft on the witness.
- » We do jury research with children to ensure our language is simple and our trial themes understandable.
- » We regularly win for companies that jurors may not initially favor, i.e. Big Oil, Big Chemical, Big Tobacco...

ABOUT THE FIRM: Called a "Big Gun" and "High Profile" by the San Francisco Chronicle and the Recorder, and a "Top Law Firm" by the National Law Journal, Lafayette & Kumagai LLP is a minority-owned boutique litigation firm that specializes in business torts, employment, complex litigation and trials. Lafayette & Kumagai received the Minority-Owned Law Firm Client Service Award, presented by the California Minority Counsel Program for outstanding client service. The firm was named by clients as an Honor Roll firm in Complex Commercial Litigation and Complex Employment Litigation in BTI Litigation Outlook 2019: Changes, Trends and Opportunities for Law Firms. The firm has been listed in "Litigation Kings" and in "Who Represents America's Biggest Companies?" in Corporate Counsel magazine's annual report on the law firms most used by the Fortune 100. Lafayette & Kumagai is one of few minority-owned firms to argue before the United States Supreme Court, HUD v. Rucker, 535 U.S. 125 (2002).

TRIAL PRACTICE: Lafayette & Kumagai is well-known for its strong trial practice. The firm's attorneys have extensive experience preparing complicated cases for trial from the commencement of litigation, but often are brought in midstream to try cases on behalf of clients such as CBS, Viacom, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, McKesson Corporation, the Regents of the University of California and Shell Oil Company. Partner Gary T. Lafayette has tried over thirty cases to verdict and served a founding co-chair of the NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee.

Lafayette & Kumagai has highly significant trial experience, trying complicated matters in difficult courts. Sought out for their trial expertise, the firm's lawyers are retained to try cases that fall outside their bailiwicks, ranging from securities cases to a consumer class action in which Plaintiff's demand exceeded $78 million. In addition to jury trials, Lafayette & Kumagai consistently prevails in bench trials, arbitrations and preliminary injunction hearings on behalf of its clients.

The firm's recent trial victories include a defense verdict in a disability discrimination case, a defense jury verdict in a constructive discharge trial in San Francisco, a defense decision in a pregnancy discrimination arbitration, a defense verdict in a high profile whistleblower trial in U.S. District Court, and a defense verdict in a sexual harassment and retaliation trial involving three plaintiffs. LimNexus is a business law firm with a global reach, providing efficient, personalized and solutions-based service to our clients. Attorneys in our litigation and trial practice group represent domestic and international clients in state and federal courts throughout the United States, and in arbitration proceedings around the world. Our litigation practice experience and expertise includes complex commercial and business litigation, intellectual property disputes, international arbitration and cross-border litigation, catastrophic injury and property damage defense, labor and employment counseling and litigation, bankruptcy and restructuring, and white collar criminal investigation and defense.

LimNexus litigators and trial attorneys are, first and foremost, problem-solvers. Members of our litigation and trial practice group excel in counseling clients on how to avoid litigation and/or minimize their liability exposure before disputes arise. When litigation does occur, we work closely with our clients to identify their objectives and develop a tailored strategy to achieve those goals. Frequently this involves positioning the matter, in an efficient and cost-effective manner, to be resolved by dispositive motion or settlement. However, if trial becomes necessary, our seasoned trial attorneys make sure that each client's case is presented in an effective and compelling way to maximize the likelihood of a positive outcome for our clients.

Our litigation team has extensive trial experience. Our litigation partners have firstchair trial experience, most of our associates have second-chaired at least one jury trial and one of our associates has first chaired numerous bench trials. A seasoned trial judge called our managing partner, Richard Amador, "one of the finest trial lawyers in the profession; his reputation for honesty and integrity is impeccable."

We focus only on what needs to be done to get results for our clients. We really think about tactics and strategy and never take a cookie-cutter approach. And we stick to what we do best: California employment and business litigation.

How We Work We typically assign a two-lawyer team on each litigation matter. On our dime, all written work product gets an extra review to ensure our quality standards are met, and we teach trial skills to all our lawyers because knowing how to try a case well makes for superior lawyering in the day-to-day work that wins most cases. We focus relentlessly on client service, striving to make our clients' jobs easier.

At Trial

When it comes to complex business and commercial disputes, Walsh attorneys are equipped to successfully handle matters in all stages including through mediation, arbitration, and trial. Our versatile team has represented some of the country's largest and most prestigious companies across a broad range of industries. We prosecute and defend complex and multi-party litigation, and are sought after for our skill in many subject areas including intellectual property, labor and employment, construction, commercial and business litigation, and trade secrets. We find that the most economical strategy begins before a dispute even arises, and work to develop strategies to avoid litigation and minimize litigation risk. When a dispute does emerge, Walsh's track record speaks for itself: our litigators have successfully tried hundreds of cases in arbitrations as well as in state and federal courts.

Representative Matters:

- Walsh's labor and employment law practice group successfully defended a New Jersey university in an arbitration to remove an employee. Following five days of testimony, the arbitrator ruled for Walsh's client, largely based on two days of cross of the employee.
- Immunex v. Sandoz, D.N.J., in this 2018 patent law bench trial, Walsh attorneys successfully teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to try a series of novel patent issues resulting in a finding of infringement of valid and enforceable patents. Walsh attorneys directed and crossed expert witnesses and also handled daily evidence arguments.
- DHL v. Log-Net, D.N.J., in this 2018 two-week federal jury trial, Walsh attorneys represented a software creator. The jury returned a contract and copyright verdict of over $14 million in favor of Walsh's client while finding no basis for any of the claims by the adverse party.
- Kars 4 Kids v. America Can, D.N.J., in this 2019 trademark jury trial, Walsh attorneys teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to try a two-week case resulting in the jury rejecting the adversary's claims. The Walsh team handled two witnesses and numerous evidence issues.
- EagleView Techs. v. Xactware Solutions, D.N.J., in this federal jury trial, Walsh teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to successfully represent a leading provider of aerial imagery and data analytics in a patent infringement action concerning software patents, resulting in a September 2019 iury award of $125 million.
- Mondis v. LG, D.N.J., Walsh attorneys teamed with an AmLaw 100 firm to defend against claims of patent infringement and successfully moved to vacate a $45 million jury verdict following a 2019 trial.
- Adapt Pharma v. Teva, D.N.J., in a June 2020 federal bench trial, Walsh attorneys teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to successfully defend against claims for patent infringement concerning a generic version of the nasal spray treatment for opioid overdoses, resulting in a finding that claims from four patents related to Narcan are invalid.
- In a currently pending arbitration, the firm's lead construction attorney serves as counsel to a Fortune 500 company in a dispute arising out of the construction of a corporate headquarters. It is a complex dispute over alleged design errors leading to violations of the fire code.

Willenken is based on the principle that achieving great results for our clients is the paramount objective. We win more than our fair share of cases—#### because winning matters.

Our attorneys have the confidence to take on complexity, the ingenuity to think differently, and the tenacity to win. When clients choose Willenken, we honor their trust by putting all of our skill, talent, and spirit into obtaining favorable results, while protecting their business interests at every stage.

Willenken lawyers have tried over 150 cases to verdict or judgment. We never push our clients to accept a suboptimal settlement because we are afraid of going to trial. We view trial as an opportunity for client success, not a crisis. Our trial skills are what allow us to harness the evidence and law necessary to negotiate favorable settlements and to secure dispositive motion victories. For this reason, clients regularly ask us to handle last-minute trials; they engage us to take over for prior counsel who counted on the case to settle or just weren't prepared to take it all the way when needed. Since the start, Willenken has been the go-to firm for Fortune 500 companies for their most challenging complex litigation matters.

Notable Results

- On behalf of Motorola Solutions, we obtained a total defense victory and secured dismissal with prejudice of a bid-rigging and unfair competition lawsuit.
- On behalf of Lumens Co., Ltd., a Korean LED manufacturer, we obtained a $1 million victory and a total defense victory to $16 million in counterclaims.
- We defended the nation's largest gas utility in a five-week major personal injury trial. Although the client already stipulated to liability, we staved off punitive damages and the jury awarded less than half of the plaintiff's demand.

Business Litigation

Business disputes often involve complex matters, but our team of lawyers can draw on the perspective and judgment developed over years of experience to simplify and clarify the issues for litigation and resolution. Our litigation team has prosecuted and defended a wide range of business disputes including: business torts; partner, shareholder, and officer/director disputes; derivative actions; breach of contract; fraud; confidentiality, non-compete, and non-solicitation agreements; tortious interference; theft of trade secrets; injunctions; the appointment of receivers; fiduciary duty claims; corporate waste; corporate dissolution; piercing the corporate veil; and conversion and civil theft. Multilingual, our lawyers have handled litigation involving various jurisdictions in Central and South America, as well as the Caribbean, and have litigated numerous matters relating to forum non conveniens.

Our litigation team also has broad experience with arbitrations, from the application of arbitration provisions in contracts, through the arbitration hearing and the enforcement of arbitration awards. Our lawyers have experience before the American Arbitration Association (AAA), International Center for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), and FINRA (formerly NASD) in representing litigants and even as party-appointed arbitrator.

We efficiently, aggressively and effectively resolve disputes both in and out of the courtroom including pre-suit resolution and mediation. We regularly approach mediation as a preparation for trial in order to ensure that our clients never negotiate from a position of weakness.

Labor & Employment

Our Labor & Employment litigators have represented clients in all levels of claims from administrative proceedings, to federal and state courts, as well as at mediations and arbitrations. Our representations have included claims involving discrimination, Family Medical Act leave, wrongful termination, restrictive covenants, workers' compensation, labor disputes, as well as wage and hour dispute claims.
