The perfect resource for finding vetted litigators in the right location and with the right skill set.
The NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee

Members of the NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee (“Trials PAC”) have significant, demonstrated trial experience. Our members try cases in state and federal court (and some international tribunals) and can put their experience to work in arbitration—always with the goal of getting the best outcome for the client.

Trials PAC members have tried jury and bench trials in a wide range of subject matters, including business and commercial litigation; mass torts; complex and catastrophic injury; employment discrimination; wage and hour claims; ERISA; breach of contract; product and premises liability; professional liability; securities liability; and patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual property infringement matters. They have represented their clients’ interests in “bet the company” litigation and class actions, as well as the cases that make up the day-to-day work of corporate legal departments. Whether representing an insurance company, a leading retailer, a national financial institution, or a regional business, our members are nimble, quick on their feet, and able to take on whatever the day in court may throw at them.

Our Trials PAC directory showcases the talents of our experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys. We hope it provides a resource for in-house counsel looking to work with experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys on legal matters heading to trial or for our members to work collaboratively with each other across jurisdictions. Collectively, Trials PAC members are estimated to have spent nearly 45,000 days in trial, with over 6,000 jury trials, 6,500 bench trials, and 3,500 arbitrations under their belts. Trial PAC members recognize that each trial - small or large - is significant to the client.

When you need seasoned representation—NAMWOLF’s Trial PAC members have got you covered!

Interested in a complimentary CLE for your in-house team, need help putting together a multi-jurisdictional team, or want information about this NAMWOLF Practice Area Committee? Our Trials PAC Co-Chairs can help!

Tough cases are our business.

Over the last twenty-five years, our trial lawyers have successfully handled many of the most complex and high-profile cases in Washington and the Pacific Northwest. Clients turn to us for practical, common-sense advice, and tenacious advocacy, when businesses and reputations are on the line.

Calfo Eakes was recently ranked as one of Seattle’s top commercial litigation and white collar criminal defense firms by Chambers & Partners USA.

Recent Litigation Experience

CEO of national real estate syndication firm in a matter arising from the company’s sale of $4 billion in commercial real estate through private placement and other investment offerings. Defended client in a three-month trial in federal district court alleging securities, mail and wire fraud.

Representation of King County in age, race, and disability discrimination suit brought by former employee of wastewater treatment division. After a four-week trial in King County Superior Court, the jury unanimously found in favor of King County on all claims. The jury’s verdict was recently affirmed on appeal, Marin v. King County, No. 72666-8-I (Div. 1, June 6, 2016). The plaintiff’s motion for discretionary review by the Washington Supreme Court was denied.

President of native-owned, Canadian cigarette distribution company on tax evasion, obstruction of justice and perjury charges. After a jury trial, the government dismissed all charges.

Representation of publicly-elected Washington State Auditor Troy Kelley in prosecution alleging wire fraud, money laundering, perjury, tax fraud and false statements. After a six-week jury trial, we obtained an acquittal on the false statement charges and the jury deadlocked on all remaining counts.
The lawyers at CHEN MALIN LLP practice at the intersection of complex transactions and litigation. We eschew playbooks when solving problems, and our approach impacts results. Defying convention in the IT industry, we secured major concessions from vendors that later formed the basis for multiple 8-figure recoveries for our client. In bet-the-company litigation, we have multiple trial and pre-trial victories against teams from AmLaw 100 and well-known plaintiff’s firms. In each instance, our clients were successful when observers expected adverse results. Our clients include multiple Fortune 100 and Global Fortune 500 companies, and they entrust us with contracts that impact 11-figures in annual operating revenues and litigations when the stakes matter.

Counter-parties have sought our advice after negotiations have concluded. We have won cases using theories that the same courts have rejected—when those theories were advanced by others. We are one of a handful of teams in the country that have successfully litigated a F/RAND (patent) case to verdict. And our examinations of opposing witnesses have repeatedly had case-dispositive effect.

Our trial attorneys have the experience, grit, and skill to fight our clients’ battles. We try cases nationwide, leveraging our significant knowledge of our local state and federal courts in our “home” states and those nearby, and our deep subject matter knowledge on behalf of our clients wherever the need arises. And our attorneys have significant appellate experience to back up our trial (or arbitration) results.

Our experienced partner-level attorneys offer our clients a wealth of experience, and Culhane Meadows’ innovative cloud-based practice model and use of technology allow us to work nimbly, whether in the office or on the road while keeping overhead and fees to clients well below those charged by firms with comparable experience.

ABOUT THE FIRM

DTO is one of NAMWOLF’s newest California firms. After spending years at big law firms and as in-house counsel for Fortune 10 companies, Will Delgado, Mark Tarango, and Megan O’Neill decided to start a law firm entirely owned by women and minorities. Seven of DTO’s twelve attorneys are women, and another seven are people of color.

The firm’s approach is simple: commit to learning the client’s business; immediately determine what matters to them; and relentlessly pursue the client’s business-driven objectives.

DTO’s entrepreneurial spirit allows its stakeholders to modify rate structures and advance other cutting edge business objectives, which big law firms are unable to do.

Firm Overview

WE'RE THE GIANT KILLERS
We thrive on the tough cases: the ones where your company, fortune or liberty are on the line. Bring us your biggest problem to solve. We’ll get it done.

Members of Keller/Anderle LLP have over 325 jury trials among them, with an unparalleled record of success. We win and win big. And we square off against some of the nation’s biggest firms. Our practice focuses on high-stakes litigation of all types — the really difficult cases — including commercial, intellectual property, securities, bad faith, white collar criminal defense, class actions, and entertainment/sports.

We see ourselves as old-fashioned barristers who can try any kind of case, and we’ve proven it by prevailing against some of the nation’s major law firms. In just the last eight years we’ve won judgments of over $925 million and settled others for eight figures. The firm includes some of the best minds in the profession — and some of the most intuitive.

WE'RE RIGHT AT HOME IN TRIAL
Most major law firms have litigation partners with very little — and surprisingly often, absolutely no — jury trial experience. When trial looms, they may settle the case for far less (or more) than it’s worth, because of fear or merely because they have no idea what to do in front of actual jurors.

We try cases. All of our preparation is done with trial in mind. We’re not interested in running up billable hours for their own sake. We use pre-trial discovery to support and craft our story at trial. We don’t make needless motions, take irrelevant depositions or expend resources in unwarranted adversarial jousting. We invest our time and energy advancing the ball and furthering our strategy. Everything we do is oriented toward achieving a successful outcome.

Most cases never make it to trial. But great trial lawyers get the great settlements. When the other side knows you try and win cases, are meticulously prepared and relish the battle, the client gets maximum value. The opposite is true, too — when the other side knows you have no track record at trial and smells blood in the water, settlement value is greatly diminished.

ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION PROS
The same skills that win cases before juries come into play during arbitration and mediation. Knowing how to present evidence in a compelling, persuasive way to judges and arbitrators is a rare skill. They, too, can tell a top trial lawyer when they see one — and factor that into what your case is worth.

CLIENT-CENTERED FEE ARRANGEMENTS
“Biglaw” knows just one way of operating: the billable hour. Straight billable-hour fee arrangements encourage fee inflation, needlessly high staffing, and bloated discovery and motion practice. With layers of associates and senior associates, junior partners and senior partners on each case, whole teams of lawyers are used to produce the simplest memos. Each attorney knows only a portion of the case, and “lead counsel” may not know much at all without briefing from others. Every court appearance involves a parade.

Kim Vaughan Lerner LLP has extensive experience in complex commercial litigation, employment litigation and insurance defense matters in Florida state and federal courts. We have demonstrated our ability to handle significant cases successfully to jury verdict, bench trial, or final arbitral hearing. In the last eight years, we have taken fourteen matters to trial, including defending a tobacco manufacturer in a products liability trial, defending a chemical manufacturer/distributor in an environmental contamination trial, and defending a hospitality client in a transgender employment trial.

We are a "go-to" firm for high stakes litigation, for matters that may impact the highest levels of any business organization, or for matters that require the utmost discretion and confidentiality. We are routinely retained in such instances because of our ability to analyze problems, offer practical advice, and work with our clients to achieve results through efficient and effective case management.

We are highly regarded by our peers in Florida, as we are ranked in Chambers USA, Super Lawyers, and several Florida attorney surveys. In addition, our firm is "AV" rated by Martindale-Hubbell. At KVL Law, diversity is more than a catch phrase, it is a way of life. Nearly all of our attorneys are persons of color, and more than half of them are women. All of our lawyers share a deep commitment to our community as reflected in our extensive record of voluntary bar service, pro bono work, and community volunteer service.
We are the “real deal.” We are trial lawyers and not simply litigators. Kuchler Polk Weiner, LLC (KPW) is a boutique, civil litigation, minority and women-owned law firm. We have twenty-nine (29) lawyers, many of whom bear an AV Preeminent rating. We pride ourselves on having trial-ready female lead counsel able to handle any civil litigation matter. Our lawyers are admitted in Louisiana, Texas, Mississippi, and Arkansas and have practiced pro hac vice across the country. We are often tapped to parachute into a trial-threat case in the month or two before trial to represent the client in cases across the country. Our clients value our ability to work collegially and as a virtual law firm with the clients’ established counsel in other jurisdictions to bring diversity and a depth of trial experience to their teams.

Our Difference
» We are storytellers who make complicated cases simple.
» We shed the lawyer persona in favor of an authentic, relatable approach.
» Where sympathies run high, we are tough on the facts but soft on the witness.
» We do jury research with children to ensure our language is simple and our trial themes understandable.
» We regularly win for companies that jurors may not initially favor, i.e. Big Oil, Big Chemical, Big Tobacco...

ABOUT THE FIRM: Called a “Big Gun” and “High Profile” by the San Francisco Chronicle and the Recorder, and a “Top Law Firm” by the National Law Journal, Lafayette & Kumagai LLP is a minority-owned boutique litigation firm that specializes in business torts, employment, complex litigation and trials. Lafayette & Kumagai received the Minority-Owned Law Firm Client Service Award, presented by the California Minority Counsel Program for outstanding client service. The firm was named by clients as an Honor Roll firm in Complex Commercial Litigation and Complex Employment Litigation in BTI Litigation Outlook 2019: Changes, Trends and Opportunities for Law Firms. The firm has been listed in “Litigation Kings” and in “Who Represents America’s Biggest Companies?” in Corporate Counsel magazine’s annual report on the law firms most used by the Fortune 100. Lafayette & Kumagai is one of few minority-owned firms to argue before the United States Supreme Court, HUD v. Rucker, 535 U.S. 125 (2002).

TRIAL PRACTICE: Lafayette & Kumagai is well-known for its strong trial practice. The firm’s attorneys have extensive experience preparing complicated cases for trial from the commencement of litigation, but often are brought in midstream to try cases on behalf of clients such as CBS, Viacom, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, McKesson Corporation, the Regents of the University of California and Shell Oil Company. Partner Gary T. Lafayette has tried over thirty cases to verdict and served a founding co-chair of the NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee.

Lafayette & Kumagai has highly significant trial experience, trying complicated matters in difficult courts. Sought out for their trial expertise, the firm’s lawyers are retained to try cases that fall outside their bailiwicks, ranging from securities cases to a consumer class action in which Plaintiff’s demand exceeded $78 million. In addition to jury trials, Lafayette & Kumagai consistently prevails in bench trials, arbitrations and preliminary injunction hearings on behalf of its clients.

The firm’s recent trial victories include a defense verdict in a disability discrimination case, a defense jury verdict in a constructive discharge trial in San Francisco, a defense decision in a pregnancy discrimination arbitration, a defense verdict in a high profile whistleblower trial in U.S. District Court, and a defense verdict in a sexual harassment and retaliation trial involving three plaintiffs. These are on top of a nonsuit in an age discrimination/termination trial, and a Judgment as a Matter of Law in a disability discrimination and failure to accommodate case.

LimNexus is a business law firm with a global reach, providing efficient, personalized and solutions-based service to our clients. Attorneys in our litigation and trial practice group represent domestic and international clients in state and federal courts throughout the United States, and in arbitration proceedings around the world. Our litigation practice experience and expertise includes complex commercial and business litigation, intellectual property disputes, international arbitration and cross-border litigation, catastrophic injury and property damage defense, labor and employment counseling and litigation, bankruptcy and restructuring, and white collar criminal investigation and defense.

LimNexus litigators and trial attorneys are, first and foremost, problem-solvers. Members of our litigation and trial practice group excel in counseling clients on how to avoid litigation and/or minimize their liability exposure before disputes arise. When litigation does occur, we work closely with our clients to identify their objectives and develop a tailored strategy to achieve those goals. Frequently this involves positioning the matter, in an efficient and cost-effective manner, to be resolved by dispositive motion or settlement. However, if trial becomes necessary, our seasoned trial attorneys make sure that each client’s case is presented in an effective and compelling way to maximize the likelihood of a positive outcome for our clients.

Employment and Business Trial Team

Who We Are
A diverse team of employment and business trial lawyers representing regional and national organizations in courts, arbitrations, and agency proceedings throughout California. For full biographies, please visit www.sanchez-amador.com.

Who We Represent
Wells Fargo Bank, McDonald’s Corporation, Albertsons, JPMorgan Chase, PG&E, Harley-Davidson, Bristol Farms, Toll Brothers, Southern California Gas Co., and similar organizations.

We have strong, collaborative relationships with our clients and welcome the opportunity to connect you with in-house references to discuss our responsiveness, results, creativity and cost-effectiveness. Our lawyers have successfully taken cases to trial and arbitration in employment, real property, fraud and other business disputes.

Results
We win. A lot. We recently obtained a defense verdict for a Fortune 500 company in a difficult wrongful termination jury trial in one the riskiest places for major employers to try a case—the Los Angeles County Superior Court.

Our litigation team has extensive trial experience. Our litigation partners have first-chair trial experience, most of our associates have second-chaired at least one jury trial and one of our associates has first chaired numerous bench trials. A seasoned trial judge called our managing partner, Richard Amador, “one of the finest trial lawyers in the profession; his reputation for honesty and integrity is impeccable.”

We focus only on what needs to be done to get results for our clients. We really think about tactics and strategy and never take a cookie-cutter approach. And we stick to what we do best: California employment and business litigation.

How We Work
We typically assign a two-lawyer team on each litigation matter. On our dime, all written work product gets an extra review to ensure our quality standards are met, and we teach trial skills to all our lawyers because knowing how to try a case well makes for superior lawyering in the day-to-day work that wins most cases. We focus relentlessly on client service, striving to make our clients' jobs easier.

Willenken is based on the principle that achieving great results for our clients is the paramount objective. We win more than our fair share of cases—because winning matters.

Our attorneys have the confidence to take on complexity, the ingenuity to think differently, and the tenacity to win. When clients choose Willenken, we honor their trust by putting all of our skill, talent, and spirit into obtaining favorable results, while protecting their business interests at every stage.

Willenken lawyers have tried over 150 cases to verdict or judgment. We never push our clients to accept a suboptimal settlement because we are afraid of going to trial. We view trial as an opportunity for client success, not a crisis. Our trial skills are what allow us to harness the evidence and law necessary to negotiate favorable settlements and to secure dispositive motion victories. For this reason, clients regularly ask us to handle last-minute trials; they engage us to take over for prior counsel who counted on the case to settle or just weren’t prepared to take it all the way when needed. Since the start, Willenken has been the go-to firm for Fortune 500 companies for their most challenging complex litigation matters.

Notable Results

- On behalf of Motorola Solutions, we obtained a total defense victory and secured dismissal with prejudice of a bid-rigging and unfair competition lawsuit.
- On behalf of Lumens Co., Ltd., a Korean LED manufacturer, we obtained a $1 million victory and a total defense victory to $16 million in counterclaims.
- We defended the nation’s largest gas utility in a five-week major personal injury trial. Although the client already stipulated to liability, we staved off punitive damages and the jury awarded less than half of the plaintiff’s demand.

Awards & Recognition

- Selected for the 2019 APA-Owned Law Firm of the Year Award by the National Asian Pacific American Bar Association.
- Selected for the 2019 Minority-Owned Law Firm Client Service Award by California Minority Counsel Program.
- Two of our attorneys are members of Multi-Million Dollar Advocates Forum, the exclusive group of trial lawyers who have won multi-million dollar verdicts and settlements.

Founded in 2003, Zuber Lawler is a certified minority-owned law firm of approximately 40 attorneys. The firm was founded by attorneys who believed they could provide the highest level of legal services to large corporations, financial institutions and government entities without the inherent inefficiencies of a large law firm practice. Since then, we have grown to become one of the largest minority-owned law firms in the United States. Our attorneys typically possess large law firm backgrounds and hold degrees from leading universities in the United States and abroad. In addition to our U.S. domestic capabilities, we have a deep bench in matters involving various parts of the world, including Africa, Asia, Europe and Latin America. Zuber Lawler professionals work in languages covering over 90% of the world’s population.
Our Litigation Department has the depth and diversity to meet our clients’ legal needs. We are able to draw upon a broad range of experiences to create personalized solutions for our clients. We take great pride in the educational and legal experience of our lawyers, who include Ivy-League, top law school, and top-tier law firm alumni. With years of collective litigation experience in representing plaintiffs and defendants in federal and state courts, as well as before administrative bodies and arbitration tribunals, our litigation team has successfully represented clients in the following areas:

Business Litigation

Business disputes often involve complex matters, but our team of lawyers can draw on the perspective and judgment developed over years of experience to simplify and clarify the issues for litigation and resolution. Our litigation team has prosecuted and defended a wide range of business disputes including: business torts; partner, shareholder, and officer/director disputes; derivative actions; breach of contract; fraud; confidentiality, non-compete, and non-solicitation agreements; tortious interference; theft of trade secrets; injunctions; the appointment of receivers; fiduciary duty claims; corporate waste; corporate dissolution; piercing the corporate veil; and conversion and civil theft. Multilingual, our lawyers have handled litigation involving various jurisdictions in Central and South America, as well as the Caribbean, and have litigated numerous matters relating to forum non conveniens.

Our litigation team also has broad experience with arbitrations, from the application of arbitration provisions in contracts, through the arbitration hearing and the enforcement of arbitration awards. Our lawyers have experience before the American Arbitration Association (AAA), International Center for Dispute Resolution (ICDR), and FINRA (formerly NASD) in representing litigants and even as party-appointed arbitrator.

We efficiently, aggressively and effectively resolve disputes both in and out of the courtroom including pre-suit resolution and mediation. We regularly approach mediation as a preparation for trial in order to ensure that our clients never negotiate from a position of weakness.

Labor & Employment

Our Labor & Employment litigators have represented clients in all levels of claims from administrative proceedings, to federal and state courts, as well as at mediations and arbitrations. Our representations have included claims involving discrimination, Family Medical Act leave, wrongful termination, restrictive covenants, workers’ compensation, labor disputes, as well as wage and hour dispute claims.

Real Property and Construction Litigation

Our attorneys have proven themselves in the field of real property evictions litigation, successfully handling a broad array of matters including commercial foreclosures, actions to quiet title, unit-owner disputes, maintenance claims and assignment of rents, construction defect litigation, board litigation, condominium and homeowner association (HOA) disputes, and commercial lease disputes. We have represented developers, contractors, architects, engineers, materialmen and property owners alike.

Insurance

Our lawyers also have a broad range of experience in connection with insurance claims, including property damage and personal injury, premises liability, and trucking and cargo claims. Our lawyers can represent insureds with all aspects of insurance claims, from obtaining examinations under oath (EUO’s) through trial. Indeed, Zumpano Castro and its lawyers have been selected as approved counsel by a number of insurance carriers.
