The NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee

Members of the NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee (“Trials PAC”) have significant, demonstrated trial experience. Our members try cases in state and federal court (and some international tribunals) and can put their experience to work in arbitration—always with the goal of getting the best outcome for the client.

Trials PAC members have tried jury and bench trials in a wide range of subject matters, including business and commercial litigation; mass torts; complex and catastrophic injury; employment discrimination; wage and hour claims; ERISA; breach of contract; product and premises liability; professional liability; securities liability; and patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual property infringement matters. They have represented their clients’ interests in “bet the company” litigation and class actions, as well as the cases that make up the day-to-day work of corporate legal departments. Whether representing an insurance company, a leading retailer, a national financial institution, or a regional business, our members are nimble, quick on their feet, and able to take on whatever the day in court may throw at them.

Our Trials PAC directory showcases the talents of our experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys. We hope it provides a resource for in-house counsel looking to work with experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys on legal matters heading to trial or for our members to work collaboratively with each other across jurisdictions. Collectively, Trials PAC members are estimated to have spent nearly 45,000 days in trial, with over 6,000 jury trials, 6,500 bench trials, and 3,500 arbitrations under their belts. Trial PAC members recognize that each trial - small or large - is significant to the client.

When you need seasoned representation—NAMWOLF's Trial PAC members have got you covered!

Interested in a complimentary CLE for your in-house team, need help putting together a multi-jurisdictional team, or want information about this NAMWOLF Practice Area Committee? Our Trials PAC Co-Chairs can help!

About the Firm

Colvin, Saenz, Rodriguez & Kennamer L.L.P. is a minority owned law firm that understands what it takes to represent businesses and manufacturers in the blue-collar, working class communities of South Texas and particularly the Rio Grande Valley. Our lawyers are in trial on a regular basis, providing strong, effective defense in products liability and other personal injury cases, insurance coverage disputes, breach of contract cases, and other matters. Our firm has handled some of the biggest cases in the area – including catastrophic injuries and death – with a proven track record of success. We serve as both primary counsel and local co-counsel in venues throughout the southern third of Texas. In the difficult legal environment of South Texas, our knowledge of the law, careful case preparation and courtroom ability contribute to the firm's well-earned reputation throughout the legal community. Perhaps the most important thing we offer our clients is our firm's more than 60-year history serving the people of South Texas and the Rio Grande Valley. Our attorneys' understanding of the courts, processes and the people who sit on juries allow us to provide the skillful, results-oriented representation our clients expect and deserve.

We measure our success through the loyalty of our clients. In fact, our largest clients have been with the firm since its inception.

Cost Effective Representation

We are dedicated to delivering cost-effective legal services with optimal results. We have a depth of attorney resources to apply when specific fields of expertise are required. The firm has developed an excellent reputation for its trial attorneys and success in trial. We provide not only case analysis, but also estimates and budgets up front, so that our client can determine an appropriate course of action with full knowledge of the costs involved. When in the best interest of the client, we advocate alternative dispute resolution as a cost-effective alternative to litigation.

Responsive Communication

The firm stresses open and frequent communications with clients to insure that the services provided meet the clients' expectations. Our billing systems are also flexible, providing the information required in a format and with a frequency that conforms to a client's preferences. We offer seminars as further means of sharing critical legal information and of providing you with the latest legal developments.

Experienced Counsel

Our attorneys have experience and knowledge in litigation, mediation, national and regional case coordination, general business and commercial litigation, products liability litigation, personal injury/auto and trucking defense, mass tort actions, environmental cases, class action proceedings, workers' compensation, longshore, and admiralty claims.

We have tried hundreds of cases to verdict with an impressive track record of results.

What sets us apart is our accessibility. Our hallmark is attentiveness to our clients' needs. Calls are returned on the same business day. Our attorneys' mobile numbers are known to you. We make ourselves available. We are committed to you.

Trial Experience You Can Trust

Culhane Meadows is the largest national full-service women-owned law firm in the country with over 70 attorneys who average 20 years of experience and are licensed in over 25 U.S. jurisdictions. Our trial attorneys have the experience, grit, and skill to fight our clients' battles. We try cases nationwide, leveraging our significant knowledge of local, state and federal courts in our "home" and nearby states and deep subject matter knowledge for our clients wherever the need arises. We also have significant appellate experience to back up our trial (or arbitration) results.

Our time-tested partner-level attorneys offer our clients a wealth of experience, backed up by Culhane Meadows' innovative cloud-based practice model and the technology that allows us to work nimbly, whether in our home states or on the road, while keeping overhead and fees well below those charged by firms with comparable experience.

We'd love to put our trial experience to work for you!

- We are not afraid to try cases. Working up each case to be trial-ready prepares us to bring and defend dispositive motions, engage in effective settlement negotiations, and go to trial. We frequently step into matters on an expedited basis, such as those involving injunctive and other extraordinary relief.
- Our know-how makes us quick on our feet, able to adapt to rapidly changing dynamics in the courtroom. The significant, diverse experience our litigators bring to the table is unparalleled.
- We offer business-savvy solutions that only seasoned professionals can provide. This allows us to act as facilitators – not "roadblocks" – to your business objectives. We use a full range of technology and resources to get the job done.
- Our competitive fees are unmatched by similarly-experienced partners at traditional law firms. Our partners' billing rates are usually equal to or lower than those charged by large firms for their junior associates.
- Our lawyers place a premium on relationships. We learn your business so we can represent your interests seamlessly as an extension of your organization.

Our Litigation Attorneys Have Significant Experience In:

- High-stakes commercial litigation: e.g., represented a major corporation in eight-figure business tort claims asserted by former officers and directors; defended putative nationwide class action relating to the marketing of consumer products; defended multinational consumer goods manufacturer in design royalty dispute.
- A wide-range of employment disputes: including defending employers against discrimination and state and federal wage and hour claims, prosecuting trade secret and misappropriation claims, and enforcing post-employment restrictive covenants.
- All aspects of construction litigation and advice: including defense and prosecution of major construction-related claims, e.g., recently arbitrating claims against major general contracting firm arising out of renewable energy projects.
- Complex energy disputes: e.g., recently representing an international E&P company in a series of arbitration, court, and appellate proceedings arising out of the client's acquisition of oil and gas properties in Pakistan.
- ERISA and executive comp disputes: e.g., representing sponsors of retirement and welfare benefits plans in multi-plaintiff and class action lawsuits challenging plan terminations and plan investments.
- Securities litigation: e.g., representing companies, officers, and directors in shareholder suits, SEC enforcement actions, and related investigations.

Driven To Outperform.

DTO is one of NAMWOLF's newest California firms. After spending years at big law firms and as in-house counsel for Fortune 10 companies, Will Delgado, Mark Tarango, and Megan O'Neill decided to start a law firm entirely owned by women and minorities. Seven of DTO's twelve attorneys are women, and another seven are people of color.

The firm's approach is simple: commit to learning the client's business; immediately determine what matters to them; and relentlessly pursue the client's business-driven objectives.

DTO's entrepreneurial spirit allows its stakeholders to modify rate structures and advance other cutting edge business objectives, which big law firms are unable to do.

A Woman-Owned Law Firm

That Means

BUSINESS.

Amy L. Gaffney and Regina Hollins Lewis

Our attorneys are experienced in advising and defending corporations and business owners against a variety of employment related claims including race, age and gender discrimination, sexual harassment and hostile work environment, equal pay and other wage claims, wrongful termination and defamation claims. Amy L. Gaffney and Regina Hollins Lewis, both founding partners of the firm, along with their team collectively have over 75 years of employment litigation experience. They are both AV rated and have been named in Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America.

Representing a business in the employment area requires knowledge of the law, keen investigative skills and the ability to evaluate facts and assess the client's potential exposure. We pride ourselves on learning a client's business so that we can better assess the client's needs and provide advice and counsel accordingly. Our attorneys make it a priority to be responsive to clients in researching and providing advice. We practice in the state and federal courts throughout South Carolina and take the time to learn the distinctions in the various jurisdictions in South Carolina and factor those considerations, as well as our knowledge of the opposing case and credibility of evidence, into our analysis and recommendations to protect the client's business interests. No two employment cases are the same, and the Gaffney Lewis employment litigators use the extensive experience, coupled with a broad understanding of applicable law, to assist both individuals and employers in reducing liability risks and in handling workplace claims and litigation.

REPRESENTATIVE MATTERS

Edward Kang and Kandis Kovalsky obtained a favorable settlement on behalf of a former Chief Executive Officer and director of a public company in a dispute with the client's former company wherein the company asserted breach of fiduciary duty and faithless servant claims under Delaware and New York law.

Edward Kang and Kandis Kovalsky obtained a preliminary injunction against a former high-ranking employee of a national medical device company for misappropriation of trade secrets. The opinion is reported at 343 F.Supp.3d 509.

Obtained a temporary restraining order and subsequently a favorable settlement against a former key employee and his new Canadian employer in a federal suit to enforce post-employment restrictive covenants on behalf of a nationwide medical equipment rental business.

Brought a federal RICO action against multiple defendants in the United States District Court for the Eastern District Court of Pennsylvania. Two years after prosecuting the case in court, our client entered into a favorable settlement with the defendants. The RICO action was based on 18 U.S.C. § 1962(b), § 1962(c), and § 1962(d).

Obtained a multimillion-dollar judgment on behalf of a national consulting firm against a terminated employee for fraud, tortious interference, defamation and other claims related to post employment activities through social media and other means.

Settled favorably on behalf of a majority shareholder in a multi-million shareholder oppression action. Edward T. Kang and Jacklyn Fetbroyt successfully fended off a group of minority shareholders in this "bet the company" litigation.

Firm Overview

WE'RE THE GIANT KILLERS

We thrive on the tough cases: the ones where your company, fortune or liberty are on the line. Bring us your biggest problem to solve. We'll get it done.

Members of Keller/Anderle LLP have over 325 jury trials among them, with an unparalleled record of success. We win and win big. And we square off against some of the nation's biggest firms. Our practice focuses on high-stakes litigation of all types – the really difficult cases – including commercial, intellectual property, securities, bad faith, white collar criminal defense, class actions, and entertainment/sports.

We see ourselves as old-fashioned barristers who can try any kind of case, and we've proven it by prevailing against some of the nation's major law firms. In just the last eight years we've won judgments of over $925 million and settled others for eight figures. The firm includes some of the best minds in the profession – and some of the most intuitive.

WE'RE RIGHT AT HOME IN TRIAL

Most major law firms have litigation partners with very little – and surprisingly often, absolutely no – jury trial experience. When trial looms, they may settle the case for far less (or more) than it's worth, because of fear or merely because they have no idea what to do in front of actual jurors.

We try cases. All of our preparation is done with trial in mind. We're not interested in running up billable hours for their own sake. We use pre-trial discovery to support and craft our story at trial. We don't make needless motions, take irrelevant depositions or expend resources in unwarranted adversarial jousting. We invest our time and energy advancing the ball and furthering our strategy. Everything we do is oriented toward achieving a successful outcome.

Most cases never make it to trial. But great trial lawyers get the great settlements. When the other side knows you try and win cases, are meticulously prepared and relish the battle, the client gets maximum value. The opposite is true, too – when the other side knows you have no track record at trial and smells blood in the water, settlement value is greatly diminished.

ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION PROS

The same skills that win cases before juries come into play during arbitration and mediation. Knowing how to present evidence in a compelling, persuasive way to judges and arbitrators is a rare skill. They, too, can tell a top trial lawyer when they see one – and factor that into what your case is worth.

CLIENT-CENTERED FEE ARRANGEMENTS

"Biglaw" knows just one way of operating: the billable hour. Straight billable-hour fee arrangements encourage fee inflation, needlessly high staffing, and bloated discovery and motion practice. With layers of associates and senior associates, junior partners and senior partners on each case, whole teams of lawyers are used to produce the simplest memos. Each attorney knows only a portion of the case, and "lead counsel" may not know much at all without briefing from others. Every court appearance involves a parade.

TRIAL PRACTICE: Lafayette & Kumagai is well-known for its strong trial practice. The firm’s attorneys have extensive experience preparing complicated cases for trial from the commencement of litigation, but often are brought in midstream to try cases on behalf of clients such as CBS, Viacom, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, McKesson Corporation, the Regents of the University of California and Shell Oil Company. Partner Gary T. Lafayette has tried over thirty cases to verdict and served a founding co-chair of the NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee.

Lafayette & Kumagai has highly significant trial experience, trying complicated matters in difficult courts. Sought out for their trial expertise, the firm’s lawyers are retained to try cases that fall outside their bailiwicks, ranging from securities cases to a consumer class action in which Plaintiff’s demand exceeded $78 million. In addition to jury trials, Lafayette & Kumagai consistently prevails in bench trials, arbitrations and preliminary injunction hearings on behalf of its clients. The firm has recently been sought out to present its expertise on practicing law in a virtual environment, after conducting a federal virtual bench trial in June 2020 and securing a favorable judgment for its client.

The firm’s recent trial victories include a defense verdict in a disability discrimination case, a defense jury verdict in a constructive discharge trial in San Francisco, a defense decision in a pregnancy discrimination arbitration, a defense verdict in a high profile whistleblower trial in U.S. District Court, and a defense verdict in a sexual harassment and retaliation trial involving three plaintiffs. These are on top of a nonsuit in an age discrimination/termination trial, and a Judgment as a Matter of Law in a disability discrimination and failure to accommodate case.

Trial Team

Lawrence Law's trial attorneys have experience trying a wide range of cases, including corporate disputes, regulatory defense, products liability defense, commercial and securities arbitrations, intellectual property disputes, routine commercial disputes, and employment matters. Though pre-suit resolution is oftentimes preferred and in our clients' best interests, we are always prepared to try cases to verdict or award. Indeed, our trial attorneys have achieved notable successes in high-stakes, and sometimes high-profile, cases in Maryland and across the country. Those successes include a rare defeat of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in a high-profile securities fraud prosecution and several significant defense verdicts in corporate and products liability litigation.

Our clients include businesses and businesspeople from diverse industries, including vehicle manufacturers, financial services firms, and commercial construction contractors. Likewise, our clients include global Fortune 500 companies and local, privately held Maryland businesses. As part of our edge, our trial team leverages state-of-the-art technology to provide exceptional representation to clients in all matters.

Our attorneys are deeply rooted in the Maryland legal community and have leadership positions in the Maryland State Bar Association and other local bar associations and legal organizations. Our trial team also regularly serves as local counsel in class actions and other complex cases pending in Maryland state and federal courts.

LITIGATION AND TRIAL PRACTICE

LimNexus is a business law firm with a global reach, providing efficient, personalized and solutions-based service to our clients. Attorneys in our litigation and trial practice group represent domestic and international clients in state and federal courts throughout the United States, and in arbitration proceedings around the world. Our litigation practice experience and expertise includes complex commercial and business litigation, intellectual property disputes, international arbitration and cross-border litigation, catastrophic injury and property damage defense, labor and employment counseling and litigation, bankruptcy and restructuring, and white collar criminal investigation and defense.

LimNexus litigators and trial attorneys are, first and foremost, problem-solvers. Members of our litigation and trial practice group excel in counseling clients on how to avoid litigation and/or minimize their liability exposure before disputes arise. When litigation does occur, we work closely with our clients to identify their objectives and develop a tailored strategy to achieve those goals. Frequently this involves positioning the matter, in an efficient and cost-effective manner, to be resolved by dispositive motion or settlement. However, if trial becomes necessary, our seasoned trial attorneys make sure that each client's case is presented in an effective and compelling way to maximize the likelihood of a positive outcome for our clients.

ABOUT US

Our founders Sara Lincoln and Tricia Derr — both seasoned and accomplished trial attorneys — came together to create a new kind of law firm 12+ years ago. They saw a need in the industry and a demand among clients for an alternative to the big, institutional law firms — one that offered diversity, trial experience, and value.

That was the foundation for Lincoln Derr, and it continues to guide our firm now, as we continue to grow and win for our clients.

OUR ADVANTAGE

As a firm, our strength lies in our experience. We are trial attorneys. It's in our blood, and it means we fight hard for our clients, no matter what — even if a case never sees the inside of a courtroom. That's the Lincoln Derr Advantage.

Our attorneys represent some of the largest healthcare providers, manufacturers, and Fortune 500 companies throughout the Southeast. We've logged more than 10,000 hours in the courtroom and 150-plus years of combined practice experience.

Our law firm is certified as a "Minority Business Enterprise" by the National Minority Supplier Development Council. ## Amy M. Stewart (she, her, hers)

Founding Partner | Intuitive. Strategic. Relentless.

"She gets it. When you work with Amy, you will understand why."

Amy is the woman you want on your team. She's intuitive, strategic, and relentless. What sets Amy apart from other attorneys are the skills she garnered from her experiences in the athletic world. Winning is in her blood – she played college basketball at Wake Forest University and coached Division I basketball at her alma mater and Tulane University before shifting her focus to wins in the courtroom. Amy's unique background helps her bring a dignified and measured aggressiveness and competitive nature to her legal practice.

WIDE RANGE OF EXPERTISE

Amy has experience in resolving commercial disputes, business torts, employment, and labor matters. In addition to her civil trial and arbitration experience, Amy is a highly sought-after investigator who analyzes high-profile and sensitive ethical and workplace-related issues. Indeed, Amy has investigated the types of matters that land on the front page of the Dallas Morning News. Additionally, Amy is a certified Title IX Investigator by the Association of Title IX Administrators. Additionally, Amy serves on the board of Anomaly Sports Group, LLC, a national educational consulting firm on the topic of NIL.

Amy also is certified as an Arbitrator with the AAA and presides over commercial, construction, and employment matters. She was recently inducted into the prestigious International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution Panel of Distinguished Neutrals.

A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

Based on her experience building winning teams, Amy has an innate ability to connect with clients. By listening to her clients, Amy identifies and understands the critical success factors before developing a game plan—what does a "win" look like for this legal dispute. Amy never gives up on meeting her client's objectives and uses her intellect and intuition to alter the game plan when issues arise. Business clients want Amy leading and representing their interests as their outside legal counsel. Opposing counsel respects her legal acumen and her tenaciousness.

Getting Results At Trial

When it comes to complex business and commercial disputes, Walsh attorneys are equipped to successfully handle matters in all stages including through mediation, arbitration, and trial. Our versatile team has represented some of the country's largest and most prestigious companies across a broad range of industries. We prosecute and defend complex and multi-party litigation, and are sought after for our skill in many subject areas including intellectual property, labor and employment, construction, commercial and business litigation, and trade secrets. We find that the most economical strategy begins before a dispute even arises, and work to develop strategies to avoid litigation and minimize litigation risk. When a dispute does emerge, Walsh's track record speaks for itself: our litigators have successfully tried hundreds of cases in arbitrations as well as in state and federal courts.

Representative Matters:

- Walsh's labor and employment law practice group successfully defended a New Jersey university in an arbitration to remove an employee. Following five days of testimony, the arbitrator ruled for Walsh's client, largely based on two days of cross of the employee.
- Immunex v. Sandoz, D.N.J., Walsh attorneys successfully teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to try a series of novel patent issues resulting in a finding of infringement of valid and enforceable patents.
- DHL v. Log-Net, D.N.J., in a two-week federal jury trial, Walsh attorneys represented a software creator. The jury returned a contract and copyright verdict of over $14 million in favor of Walsh's client while finding no basis for any of the claims by the adverse party.
- Kars 4 Kids v. America Can, D.N.J., in this trademark jury trial, Walsh attorneys teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to try a two-week case resulting in the jury rejecting the adversary's claims.
- EagleView Techs. v. Xactware Solutions, D.N.J., in this federal jury trial, Walsh teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to successfully represent a leading provider of aerial imagery and data analytics in a patent infringement action concerning software patents, resulting in a September 2019 jury award of $125 million. The damages were trebled to $375 million.
- Mondis v. LG, D.N.J., Walsh attorneys teamed with an AmLaw 100 firm to defend against claims of patent infringement and successfully moved to vacate a $45 million jury verdict following a 2019 trial.
- Adapt Pharma v. Teva, D.N.J., in a federal bench trial, Walsh attorneys teamed with attorneys from an AmLaw 100 firm to successfully defend against claims for patent infringement concerning a generic version of the nasal spray treatment for opioid overdoses, resulting in a finding that claims from four patents related to Narcan are invalid.
- In a complex arbitration, the firm's lead construction attorney served as counsel to a Fortune 500 company in a dispute arising out of the construction of a corporate headquarters. The arbitration involved a multifaceted dispute over responsibility for a design error leading to violations of the fire code.

Trial Experience

Zuber Lawler has proven trial attorneys, known for prevailing in difficult cases. Our trial practice is national and international in scope in that we handle matters that cross national borders and involve multiple jurisdictions and legal systems.

Our clients' ability to reach their goals in litigation, whether favorable settlements, trial wins, or mitigation of exposure, is enhanced by counsel known as tough litigators who take cases to trial when warranted. We are proven trial attorneys, known for prevailing in difficult cases. We begin each case by listening carefully to the client, followed by straightforward and frank discussions, a study of the strengths and weaknesses of the case, careful analysis of the potential risks and benefits as well as the client's tolerance for those risks, and timely and judicious discovery. Based on these factors, and in conjunction with client input we implement a litigation plan that best suits the client's needs and goals. Thus, while we approach each case with trial in mind, as part of our pre-litigation investigation, we determine the best strategy to attain an optimal solution, including considering alternatives such as mediation, arbitration, settlement, and case dispositive motions. Short of an actual trial, our experience has taught us that sometimes the most effective tool in negotiations is to be able to confidently proclaim, "Ready for trial, your Honor".

We further understand that today's legal and regulatory global environment is one in which litigation can threaten a company's very existence. Our attorneys have extensive experience with such bet-the-company matters, and we are recognized for our skill in handling critical issues.

The trial experience of our attorneys involves the following subject matter areas, among others: Contract and Commercial, Employment and other Civil Rights, Intellectual Property, Product Liability and White Collar Defense.
