The perfect resource for finding vetted litigators in the right location and with the right skill set.

The NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee

Members of the NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee ("Trials PAC") have significant, demonstrated trial experience. Our members try cases in state and federal court (and some international tribunals) and can put their experience to work in arbitration—always with the goal of getting the best outcome for the client.

Trials PAC members have tried jury and bench trials in a wide range of subject matters, including business and commercial litigation; mass torts; complex and catastrophic injury; employment discrimination; wage and hour claims; ERISA; breach of contract; product and premises liability; professional liability; securities liability; and patent, trademark, copyright, trade secret, and other intellectual property infringement matters. They have represented their clients' interests in "bet the company" litigation and class actions, as well as the cases that make up the day-to-day work of corporate legal departments. Whether representing an insurance company, a leading retailer, a national financial institution, or a regional business, our members are nimble, quick on their feet, and able to take on whatever the day in court may throw at them.

Our Trials PAC directory showcases the talents of our experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys. We hope it provides a resource for in-house counsel looking to work with experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys on legal matters heading to trial or for our members to work collaboratively with each other across jurisdictions. Collectively, Trials PAC members are estimated to have spent nearly 45,000 days in trial, with over 6,000 jury trials, 6,500 bench trials, and 3,500 arbitrations under their belts. Trial PAC members recognize that each trial - small or large - is significant to the client.

When you need seasoned representation—NAMWOLF's Trial PAC members have got you covered!

Interested in a complimentary CLE for your in-house team, need help putting together a multi-jurisdictional team, or want information about this NAMWOLF Practice Area Committee? Our Trials PAC Co-Chairs can help!

ABOUT THE FIRM

DTO is one of NAMWOLF's newest California firms. After spending years at big law firms and as in-house counsel for Fortune 10 companies, Will Delgado, Mark Tarango, and Megan O'Neill decided to start a law firm entirely owned by women and minorities. Seven of DTO's twelve attorneys are women, and another seven are people of color.

The firm's approach is simple: commit to learning the client's business; immediately determine what matters to them; and relentlessly pursue the client's business-driven objectives.

DTO's entrepreneurial spirit allows its stakeholders to modify rate structures and advance other cutting edge business objectives, which big law firms are unable to do.

Our attorneys make it a priority to be responsive to clients in researching and providing advice. Edward Kang and Kandis Kovalsky obtained a favorable settlement on behalf of a former Chief Executive Officer and director of a public company in a dispute with the client's former company wherein the company asserted breach of fiduciary duty and faithless servant claims under Delaware and New York law.

Edward Kang and Kandis Kovalsky obtained a preliminary injunction against a former high-ranking employee of a national medical device company for misappropriation of trade secrets. The opinion is reported at 343 F.Supp.3d 509.

Obtained a temporary restraining order and subsequently a favorable settlement against a former key employee and his new Canadian employer in a federal suit to enforce post-employment restrictive covenants on behalf of a nationwide medical equipment rental business.

Brought a federal RICO action against multiple defendants in the United States District Court for the Eastern District Court of Pennsylvania. Two years after prosecuting the case in court, our client entered into a favorable settlement with the defendants. The RICO action was based on 18 U.S.C. § 1962(b), § 1962(c), and § 1962(d).

Obtained a multimillion-dollar judgment on behalf of a national consulting firm against a terminated employee for fraud, tortious interference, defamation and other claims related to post employment activities through social media and other means.

Settled favorably on behalf of a majority shareholder in a multi-million shareholder oppression action. Edward T. Kang and Jacklyn Fetbroyt successfully fended off a group of minority shareholders in this "bet the company" litigation.

Firm Overview

WE'RE THE GIANT KILLERS

We thrive on the tough cases: the ones where your company, fortune or liberty are on the line. Bring us your biggest problem to solve. We'll get it done.

Members of Keller/Anderle LLP have over 325 jury trials among them, with an unparalleled record of success. We win and win big. And we square off against some of the nation's biggest firms. Our practice focuses on high-stakes litigation of all types – the really difficult cases — including commercial, intellectual property, securities, bad faith, white collar criminal defense, class actions, and entertainment/sports.

We see ourselves as old-fashioned barristers who can try any kind of case, and we've proven it by prevailing against some of the nation's major law firms. In just the last eight years we've won judgments of over $925 million and settled others for eight figures. The firm includes some of the best minds in the profession – and some of the most intuitive.

WE'RE RIGHT AT HOME IN TRIAL

Most major law firms have litigation partners with very little - and surprisingly often, absolutely no - jury trial experience. When trial looms, they may settle the case for far less (or more) than it's worth, because of fear or merely because they have no idea what to do in front of actual jurors.

We try cases. All of our preparation is done with trial in mind. We're not interested in running up billable hours for their own sake. We use pre-trial discovery to support and craft our story at trial. We don't make needless motions, take irrelevant depositions or expend resources in unwarranted adversarial jousting. We invest our time and energy advancing the ball and furthering our strategy. Everything we do is oriented toward achieving a successful outcome.

Most cases never make it to trial. But great trial lawyers get the great settlements. When the other side knows you try and win cases, are meticulously prepared and relish the battle, the client gets maximum value. The opposite is true, too – when the other side knows you have no track record at trial and smells blood in the water, settlement value is greatly diminished.

ARBITRATION AND MEDIATION PROS

The same skills that win cases before juries come into play during arbitration and mediation. Knowing how to present evidence in a compelling, persuasive way to judges and arbitrators is a rare skill. They, too, can tell a top trial lawyer when they see one – and factor that into what your case is worth.

CLIENT-CENTERED FEE ARRANGEMENTS

"Biglaw" knows just one way of operating: the billable hour. Straight billable-hour fee arrangements encourage fee inflation, needlessly high staffing, and bloated discovery and motion practice. With layers of associates and senior associates, junior partners and senior partners on each case, whole teams of lawyers are used to produce the simplest memos. Each attorney knows only a portion of the case, and "lead counsel" may not know much at all without briefing from others. Every court appearance involves a parade.

About the Firm

KBL is a litigation boutique based in San Francisco, California. We emphasize results, value, and diversity to solve the problems our clients face in their most challenging matters. We are experienced courtroom advocates who bring a results-oriented approach to litigation and strive to offer creative solutions that achieve cost-effective success for our clients.

Our attorneys have experience clerking for federal judges and working for some of the top firms in the country. We're proud to have assembled a group of lawyers who are representative of the diversity of our clients and community. Thanks to our firm's size, we have, by design, a "lean" case staffing model that avoids duplication and the unnecessary overhead that often comes with using a larger firm.

ABOUT THE FIRM: Called a "Big Gun" and "High Profile" by the San Francisco Chronicle and the Recorder, and a "Top Law Firm" by the National Law Journal, Lafayette & Kumagai LLP is a minority-owned boutique litigation firm that specializes in business torts, employment, complex litigation and trials. Lafayette & Kumagai received the Minority-Owned Law Firm Client Service Award, presented by the California Minority Counsel Program for outstanding client service. The firm was named by clients as an Honor Roll firm in Complex Commercial Litigation and Complex Employment Litigation in BTI Litigation Outlook 2019: Changes, Trends and Opportunities for Law Firms. The firm has been listed in "Litigation Kings" and in "Who Represents America's Biggest Companies?" in Corporate Counsel magazine's annual report on the law firms most used by the Fortune 100. Lafayette & Kumagai is one of few minority-owned firms to argue before the United States Supreme Court, HUD v. Rucker, 535 U.S. 125 (2002).

TRIAL PRACTICE: Lafayette & Kumagai is well-known for its strong trial practice. The firm's attorneys have extensive experience preparing complicated cases for trial from the commencement of litigation, but often are brought in midstream to try cases on behalf of clients such as CBS, Viacom, Pacific Gas and Electric Company, McKesson Corporation, the Regents of the University of California and Shell Oil Company. Partner Gary T. Lafayette has tried over thirty cases to verdict and served as a founding co-chair of the NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee.

Lafayette & Kumagai has highly significant trial experience, trying complicated matters in difficult courts. Sought out for their trial expertise, the firm's lawyers are retained to try cases that fall outside their bailiwicks, ranging from securities cases to a consumer class action in which Plaintiff's demand exceeded $78 million. In addition to jury trials, Lafayette & Kumagai consistently prevails in bench trials, arbitrations and preliminary injunction hearings on behalf of its clients. The firm has been sought out to present its expertise on practicing law in a virtual environment, after conducting a federal virtual bench trial in June 2020 and securing a favorable judgment for its client.

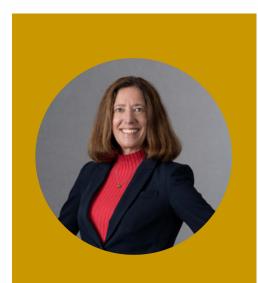

The firm's recent trial victories include a defense verdict in a disability discrimination case, a defense jury verdict in a constructive discharge trial in San Francisco, a defense decision in a pregnancy discrimination arbitration, a defense verdict in a high profile whistleblower trial in U.S. District Court, and a defense verdict in a sexual harassment and retaliation trial involving three plaintiffs. These are on top of a nonsuit in an age discrimination/termination trial, and a Judgment as a Matter of Law in a disability discrimination and failure to accommodate case.

Trial Team

Lawrence Law's trial attorneys have experience trying a wide range of cases, including corporate disputes, regulatory defense, products liability defense, commercial and securities arbitrations, intellectual property disputes, routine commercial disputes, and employment matters. Though pre-suit resolution is oftentimes preferred and in our clients' best interests, we are always prepared to try cases to verdict or award. Indeed, our trial attorneys have achieved notable successes in high-stakes, and sometimes high-profile, cases in Maryland and across the country. Those successes include a rare defeat of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in a high-profile securities fraud prosecution and several significant defense verdicts in corporate and products liability litigation.

Our clients include businesses and businesspeople from diverse industries, including vehicle manufacturers, financial services firms, and commercial construction contractors. Likewise, our clients include global Fortune 500 companies and local, privately held Maryland businesses. As part of our edge, our trial team leverages state-of-the-art technology to provide exceptional representation to clients in all matters.

Our attorneys are deeply rooted in the Maryland legal community and have leadership positions in the Maryland State Bar Association and other local bar associations and legal organizations. Our trial team also regularly serves as local counsel in class actions and other complex cases pending in Maryland state and federal courts.

LITIGATION AND TRIAL PRACTICE

LimNexus is a business law firm with a global reach, providing efficient, personalized and solutions-based service to our clients. Attorneys in our litigation and trial practice group represent domestic and international clients in state and federal courts throughout the United States, and in arbitration proceedings around the world. Our litigation practice experience and expertise includes complex commercial and business litigation, intellectual property disputes, international arbitration and cross-border litigation, catastrophic injury and property damage defense, labor and employment counseling and litigation, bankruptcy and restructuring, and white collar criminal investigation and defense.

LimNexus litigators and trial attorneys are, first and foremost, problem-solvers. Members of our litigation and trial practice group excel in counseling clients on how to avoid litigation and/or minimize their liability exposure before disputes arise. When litigation does occur, we work closely with our clients to identify their objectives and develop a tailored strategy to achieve those goals. Frequently this involves positioning the matter, in an efficient and cost-effective manner, to be resolved by dispositive motion or settlement. However, if trial becomes necessary, our seasoned trial attorneys make sure that each client's case is presented in an effective and compelling way to maximize the likelihood of a positive outcome for our clients.

TALENTED TRIAL COUNSEL

OUR TRIAL PRACTICE

Many litigators don't actually try cases. We do. We recognize that every step of a case—from the initial response to a demand through summary judgment briefing—can have a profound impact on the outcome of a trial. We constantly analyze the facts, the witnesses, and our legal defenses to place our client in the best position at trial.

We also understand the disruption that litigation has on your business. That's why we make it a priority to know your business and build strong relationships with your leaders and company witnesses, so we can minimize the impact on them while maximizing the likelihood you will prevail at trial.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Nilan Johnson Lewis' trial counsel have been nationally recognized for their skills in the courtroom. We have members of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), the American College of Trial Lawyers, the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel, and the Association of Defense Trial Counsel. The vetting required to become associated with those organizations show you don't just have to take our word for how good we are in the courtroom.

DROP-IN TRIAL EXPERIENCE

NJL lawyers are routinely hired on the eve of trial as "drop-in" counsel. We are brought in during the later stages of litigation to provide a fresh assessment, new strategy, or to take the reins after summary judgment has been denied. As drop-in counsel, we quickly provide a revised case assessment, prepare a predictable budget (which could include flat-fee arrangements), and develop a winning trial strategy.

ARBITRATIONS

We have also successfully tried numerous arbitrations, including seven cases before the AAA in just the past five years, reaching complete defense verdicts in six of the arbitrations, and a partial defense verdict in one.

EXAMPLES OF RECENT TRIAL SUCCESS

- Obtained defense verdict in $18M product liability claim involving explosion at an ethanol plant
- Obtained denial of conditional certification in an independent-contractor misclassification case involving at-the-elbow
- Complete defense verdict in $1 million+ commission case for national insurance company

Amy M. Stewart (she, her, hers) Founding Partner | Intuitive. Strategic. Relentless.

"She gets it. When you work with Amy, you will understand why."

Amy is the woman you want on your team. She's intuitive, strategic, and relentless. What sets Amy apart from other attorneys are the skills she garnered from her experiences in the athletic world. Winning is in her blood – she played college basketball at Wake Forest University and coached Division I basketball at her alma mater and Tulane University before shifting her focus to wins in the courtroom. Amy's unique background helps her bring a dignified and measured aggressiveness and competitive nature to her legal practice.

WIDE RANGE OF EXPERTISE

Amy has experience in resolving commercial disputes, business torts, employment, and labor matters. In addition to her civil trial and arbitration experience, Amy is a highly sought-after investigator who analyzes high-profile and sensitive ethical and workplace-related issues. Indeed, Amy has investigated the types of matters that land on the front page of the Dallas Morning News. Additionally, Amy is a certified Title IX Investigator by the Association of Title IX Administrators. Additional, Amy serves on the board of Anomaly Sports Group, LLC, a national educational consulting firm on the topic of NIL.

Amy also is certified as an Arbitrator with the AAA and presides over commercial, construction, and employment matters. She was recently inducted into the prestigious International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution Panel of Distinguished Neutrals.

A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

Based on her experience building winning teams, Amy has an innate ability to connect with clients. By listening to her clients, Amy identifies and understands the critical success factors before developing a game plan—what does a "win" look like for this legal dispute. Amy never gives up on meeting her client's objectives and uses her intellect and intuition to alter the game plan when issues arise. Business clients want Amy leading and representing their interests as their outside legal counsel. Opposing counsel respects her legal acumen and her tenaciousness.

LEADER BY EXAMPLE

Amy leads the only minority and woman-owned law firm in Dallas that focuses on areas of general civil litigation, labor and employment, contracts, product liability, arbitrations, personal injury, and insurance defense. She is a frequent speaker at local, state, and national legal and non-legal conferences on several subjects.

Amy has been honored with numerous industry awards, including the 2022 D CEO Dallas 500 most powerful and influential leaders in Dallas-Fort Worth, 2021 Best Lawyers in America, 2021 Super Lawyers 50 Top Women Lawyers in Texas, 2021 Lawdragon 500 Leading U.S. Corporate Employment Lawyers, 2020 Texas Minority Counsel Program Trailblazer of the Year, 2020 America's Top 100 Personal Injury Attorneys, 2020 National Black Lawyers Top 100, 2020 & 2019 Dallas Bar Association's Presidential Citation, the 2019 Dallas Business Journal Minority Business Owner Award, 2019 American Bar Association 100 Women Who Inspire Us Award and is a five-time Super Lawyers honoree.

Further, Amy serves in leadership roles as a Council member of the American Bar Association Litigation Section, Board Member of the Dallas Bar Association, member of the DBA's Coronavirus Task Force, on the Dallas Steering Committee for the Diverse Attorney Pipeline Program, and a member of the DBA's Equality Taskforce. In response to her experience participating in the nation's first virtual Summary Jury Trial, Amy put together a team of leaders in the legal field to create an eBook called the Virtual Proceedings Playbook. Amy also authored a chapter entitled "Be Your Own Advocate By Negotiating Fair Compensation" in the book, Her Story: Lessons in Success From Lawyers Who Live It.

Walsworth's trial team recognizes that in a litigation practice, the ability to successfully try cases to verdict is essential. Although trial is never the goal of the parties in a lawsuit, retaining counsel who has the ability to try cases and a history of successful trial results is a must. We have begun trial in nearly 900 jury trials, 250 non-jury trials, tried over 300 trials to verdict, and handled over 275 arbitrations.

Experience, creativity and collaboration are the keys to our successful outcomes. For nearly 35 years, Walsworth has represented clients in trial across a full spectrum of industries. We dive into our clients' businesses from the outset of representation to fully understand all of the intricacies, and develop tailored strategies and defenses that resonate in the courtroom. Our extensive experience before judges and juries is valuable not only when in trial, but is also of immense benefit before the case gets to that point. Our comprehensive knowledge of what it takes to succeed in trial is carefully applied to the strategic work-up of each case – be it through challenges to jurisdiction, managing discovery, excluding evidence, or motion practice to limit claims.

In addition, our team of highly successful trial lawyers includes members of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), one of the preeminent national organizations for experienced trial lawyers.

Our Principle

We achieve great results for our clients. Our lawyers have tried over 150 cases to verdict or judgment. We view trial as an opportunity for client success, not a crisis. We are guided by one overriding principle: Winning Matters *

Notable Results

- Secured a trial victory for AbbVie in a high-stakes breach of contract case in Delaware Chancery Court against Takeda, which failed to supply AbbVie's requirements for Lupron, the leading hormone therapy for prostate cancer. After a four-day trial, the Court found that Takeda breached multiple provisions of the supply agreement. The case proceeded in January 2023 to the second phase of the trial to determine the amount of damages to be awarded to AbbVie, which are expected to be in the high nine-figures.
- Obtained a hard-fought settlement and stipulated injunction to protect the trade secrets of Takeya USA, a manufacturer of popular stainless steel water bottles, on the proverbial eve of trial.
- Secured a settlement just days before trial for All Plastic in a high-profile patent infringement case. The District Court of Colorado adopted substantially all of Willenken's proposed constructions for seven contested terms of eight patent claims, placing All Plastic in a winning position.
- Represented the employees of an electric vehicle start-up facing allegations of misappropriation of trade secrets, violation of non-solicitation and confidentiality obligations, and breach of fiduciary duties, reaching a favorable settlement
- On behalf of Motorola Solutions, we obtained a total defense victory and secured dismissal with prejudice of a bid-rigging and unfair competition lawsuit.
- Secured a motion to dismiss at the pleading stage by prevailing on an immunity defense under Section 230 of the Communications Decency Act for a leading social media app company in a high-stakes product liability matter.
- Obtained a $1 million victory and a total defense victory to $16 million in counterclaims—and then prevailed on those claims on appeal, on behalf of Lumens Co., Ltd.
