The NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee

The NAMWOLF Trials Practice Area Committee (“Trials PAC”) consists of attorneys and law firms with significant, demonstrated experience litigating and trying cases. Trials PAC members have litigated and tried cases in a wide range of matters, often involving complex commercial disputes, including antitrust; breach of contract; business and commercial litigation; complex and catastrophic injury; employment discrimination; ERISA; insurance defense; mass tort; personal injury; product and premises liability; professional liability; RICO; securities liability; software defect; trade secret violation; trademark, copyright and other intellectual property infringement matters; wage and hour, warranty, and immigration. Many of our members have personal trial experience with single plaintiff, multi-party, collective and class action, and multi-district litigation cases, as well as providing representation to their clients in arbitrations throughout the Country. Collectively, members of the Trials PAC litigate and try cases in state and federal court (and some international tribunals) and can put their experience to work in arbitration—always with the goal of getting the best outcome for the client.

Members of the Trials PAC have represented their clients’ interests in “bet the company” litigation and class actions, as well as the cases that make up the day-today work of corporate legal departments. Whether representing local, regional or national businesses, insurance companies, leading retailers, educational institutions, or national financial institutions, our members are nimble, quick on their feet, and able to take on whatever the day in court may throw at them.

Our Trials PAC directory showcases the talents of our experienced NAMWOLF trial attorneys. We hope it provides a resource for in-house counsel looking to work with experienced NAMWOLF litigators and trial attorneys on a variety of legal matters potentially heading to trial and for our members to work collaboratively with each other across jurisdictions. Collectively, Trials PAC members have spent thousands of days in trial in thousands of jury and bench trials and arbitrations. Trial PAC members have the experience to fully recognize and appreciate that each matter, especially those that go to trial - small or large - is significant to the client.

When you need seasoned representation—NAMWOLF’s Trial PAC members have got you covered!

Interested in a complimentary CLE for your in-house team, need help putting together a multi-jurisdictional team, or want information about this NAMWOLF Practice Area Committee? Our Trials PAC Co-Chairs can help!

AGGRESSIVE WHEN NECESSARY, ALWAYS EFFECTIVE.

ANDRADE GONZALEZ LLP attorneys have unparalleled specialization in handling all aspects of litigation, trials, administrative hearings, and arbitrations with globally recognized results. While our firm's attorneys have tried dozens of cases to verdict or final decision, we have also successfully resolved over 500 cases with creative early resolution processes, demurrers, and strategic motions for summary, and judgment on the pleading.

Even in the most complex and sensitive cases, our seasoned attorneys use creativity and expertise to navigate with ease difficult commercial, tort, entertainment, intellectual property, employment, insurance coverage, product liability, professional liability, and, real estate matters. As most cases resolve before trial, we are always strategic and quick to recognize early opportunities, often diffusing cases quickly and efficiently. In the courtroom, we are strong and aggressive while maintaining the highest level of professionalism in the most difficult situations.

After obtaining a full defense verdict in a four-week jury trial with five plaintiffs alleging difficult claims of sexual abuse and seeking $24.5 million in damages, The Los Angeles and San Francisco Daily Journal recognized Mr. Andrade's result as a "Top Defense Verdict."

Commercial & Business Litigation

Culhane Meadows is the largest national full-service women-owned law firm in the U.S. Our nearly 70 attorneys bring an average practice experience of more than 20 years. Our trial attorneys have the experience, grit, and skill to fight our clients' battles, while keeping in mind business objectives and workplace relationships. We try cases nationwide, leveraging our significant knowledge of our local state and federal courts in our "home" states and those nearby, and our deep subject matter knowledge on behalf of our clients wherever the need arises. And our attorneys have significant appellate experience to back up our trial (or arbitration) results. Our experienced partner-level attorneys offer our clients a wealth of experience, and Culhane Meadows' innovative cloud-based practice model and use of technology allow us to work nimbly, whether in the office or on the road while keeping overhead and fees to clients well below those charged by firms with comparable experience. We'd love to put this experience to work for you.

WHY CHOOSE OUR LITIGATION TEAM?

- We are not afraid to try cases. Working up each case to be trial ready prepares us to prosecute dispositive motions, engage in effective settlement negotiations, and go to trial. Our experience allows us to work effectively with our clients and their opponents to fashion creative ways to resolve disputes. We are also frequently asked to step in to matters on an expedited basis, such as those involving injunctive and other extraordinary relief.
- Our know-how makes us quick on our feet, able to adapt to quickly changing dynamics in the courtroom. The significant experience our litigators bring to the table is unparalleled.
- We offer business-savvy solutions that only seasoned professionals can provide. This allows us to act as facilitators – not "roadblocks" to your business objectives, moving the dispute quickly from claim to settlement through our broad experience and expertise in alternative dispute resolution processes.
- Our competitive fees are unmatched by similarly-experienced partners at traditional law firms. Our billing rates for our partners are usually equal to or lower than those charged by large firms for their junior associates.
- Our lawyers place a premium on relationships. We learn your business so we can represent your interests seamlessly as an extension of your organization.

ABOUT THE FIRM

DTO is one of NAMWOLF's newest California firms. After spending years at big law firms and as in-house counsel for Fortune 10 companies, Will Delgado, Mark Tarango, and Megan O'Neill decided to start a law firm entirely owned by women and minorities. Seven of DTO's twelve attorneys are women, and another seven are people of color.

The firm's approach is simple: commit to learning the client's business; immediately determine what matters to them; and relentlessly pursue the client's business-driven objectives.

DTO's entrepreneurial spirit allows its stakeholders to modify rate structures and advance other cutting edge business objectives, which big law firms are unable to do.

BUSINESS.

Amy L. Gaffney and Regina Hollins Lewis

Our attorneys are experienced in advising and defending corporations and business owners against a variety of employment related claims including race, age and gender discrimination, sexual harassment and hostile work environment, equal pay and other wage claims, wrongful termination and defamation claims. Amy L. Gaffney and Regina Hollins Lewis, both founding partners of the firm, along with their team collectively have over 75 years of employment litigation experience. They are both AV rated and have been named in Super Lawyers and Best Lawyers in America.

Representing a business in the employment area requires knowledge of the law, keen investigative skills and the ability to evaluate facts and assess the client's potential exposure. We pride ourselves on learning a client's business so that we can better assess the client's needs and provide advice and counsel accordingly. Our attorneys make it a priority to be responsive to clients in researching and providing advice. We practice in the state and federal courts throughout South Carolina and take the time to learn the distinctions in the various jurisdictions in South Carolina and factor those considerations, as well as our knowledge of the opposing case and credibility of evidence, into our analysis and recommendations to protect the client's business interests. No two employment cases are the same, and the Gaffney Lewis employment litigators use the extensive experience, coupled with a broad understanding of applicable law, to assist both individuals and employers in reducing liability risks and in handling workplace claims and litigation.

The firm's recent trial victories include a defense verdict in a disability discrimination case, a defense jury verdict in a constructive discharge trial in San Francisco, a defense decision in a pregnancy discrimination arbitration, a defense verdict in a high profile whistleblower trial in U.S. District Court, and a defense verdict in a sexual harassment and retaliation trial involving three plaintiffs. These are on top of a nonsuit in an age discrimination/termination trial, and a Judgment as a Matter of Law in a disability discrimination and failure to accommodate case.

Trial Team

Lawrence Law's trial attorneys have experience trying a wide range of cases, including corporate disputes, regulatory defense, products liability defense, commercial and securities arbitrations, intellectual property disputes, routine commercial disputes, and employment matters. Though pre-suit resolution is oftentimes preferred and in our clients' best interests, we are always prepared to try cases to verdict or award. Indeed, our trial attorneys have achieved notable successes in high-stakes, and sometimes high-profile, cases in Maryland and across the country. Those successes include a rare defeat of the U.S. Securities and Exchange Commission in a high-profile securities fraud prosecution and several significant defense verdicts in corporate and products liability litigation.

Our clients include businesses and businesspeople from diverse industries, including vehicle manufacturers, financial services firms, and commercial construction contractors. Likewise, our clients include global Fortune 500 companies and local, privately held Maryland businesses. As part of our edge, our trial team leverages state-of-the-art technology to provide exceptional representation to clients in all matters.

Our attorneys are deeply rooted in the Maryland legal community and have leadership positions in the Maryland State Bar Association and other local bar associations and legal organizations. Our trial team also regularly serves as local counsel in class actions and other complex cases pending in Maryland state and federal courts.

LITIGATION AND TRIAL PRACTICE

LimNexus is a business law firm with a global reach, providing efficient, personalized and solutions-based service to our clients. Attorneys in our litigation and trial practice group represent domestic and international clients in state and federal courts throughout the United States, and in arbitration proceedings around the world. However, if trial becomes necessary, our seasoned trial attorneys make sure that each client's case is presented in an effective and compelling way to maximize the likelihood of a positive outcome for our clients.

TALENTED TRIAL COUNSEL

NILAN JOHNSON LEWIS (NJL) is an innovative, independent, women-owned law firm that is a first choice for organizations across the country seeking deep expertise to solve their complex business challenges and disputes. The firm's status as one of the largest women-owned law firms nationwide reflects NJL's longstanding commitment to fostering a diverse and inclusive workplace. We deliver exceptional results precisely because we celebrate and advance the diversity of our team and clients.

Many litigators don't actually try cases. We do. We recognize that every step of a case - from the initial response to a demand through summary judgment briefing - can have a profound effect on the outcome of a trial. We constantly analyze the facts, the witnesses, and our legal defenses to place our client in the best position at trial. We categorize every claim by exposure level, and then tie our litigation strategy and legal spend to the exposure to ensure a targeted, cost-effective approach. Given the rise in so-called nuclear verdicts, we select the "right" cases for trial for the best possible results.

We also understand the disruption that litigation has on your business. That's why we make it a priority to know your business and build strong relationships with your leaders and company witnesses, so we can minimize the impact on them while maximizing the likelihood you will prevail at trial.

NATIONAL RECOGNITION

Nilan Johnson Lewis' trial counsel have been nationally recognized for their skills in the courtroom. We have members of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), the American College of Trial Lawyers, the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel, and the Association of Defense Trial Counsel. The vetting required to become associated with those organizations show you don't just have to take our word for how good we are in the courtroom.

DROP-IN TRIAL EXPERIENCE

Nilan Johnson Lewis' trial counsel have been nationally recognized for their skills in the courtroom. We have members of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), the American College of Trial Lawyers, the Federation of Defense and Corporate Counsel, and the Association of Defense Trial Counsel. The vetting required to become associated with those organizations show you don't just have to take our word for how good we are in the courtroom.

ARBITRATION

We have also successfully tried numerous arbitrations, including seven cases before the AAA in just the past five years, reaching complete defense verdicts in six of the arbitrations, and a partial defense verdict in one.

JURY RESEARCH

We work with top-flight jury research companies to prepare witnesses for difficult cross-examinations. Our team also does real time research on prospective jurors during voir dire to identify problematic jurors.

WITNESS PREPARATION

Because we know your business, we can identify and groom the witnesses most effective at telling your company's story. We carefully plan preparation sessions to balance work and litigation risks.

RELATIONSHIPS WITH EXPERTS

Our close relationships with industry-leading experts means that they will take our calls and work with us to develop the most persuasive explanations of difficult concepts for jurors.

STEWART LAW GROUP PLLC

ASTEWART@STEWARTLAWGRP.COM

Amy M. Stewart (she, her, hers) Founding Partner | Intuitive. Strategic. Relentless.

"She gets it. When you work with Amy, you will understand why."

Amy is the woman you want on your team. She's intuitive, strategic, and relentless. What sets Amy apart from other attorneys are the skills she garnered from her experiences in the athletic world. Winning is in her blood – she played college basketball at Wake Forest University and coached Division I basketball at her alma mater and Tulane University before shifting her focus to wins in the courtroom. Amy's unique background helps her bring a dignified and measured aggressiveness and competitive nature to her legal practice.

WIDE RANGE OF EXPERTISE

Amy has experience in resolving commercial disputes, business torts, employment, and labor matters. In addition to her civil trial and arbitration experience, Amy is a highly sought-after investigator who analyzes high-profile and sensitive ethical and workplace-related issues. Indeed, Amy has investigated the types of matters that land on the front page of the Dallas Morning News. Additionally, Amy is a certified Title IX Investigator by the Association of Title IX Administrators. Additionally, Amy serves on the board of Anomaly Sports Group, LLC, a national educational consulting firm on the topic of NIL.

Amy also is certified as an Arbitrator with the AAA and presides over commercial, construction, and employment matters. She was recently inducted into the prestigious International Institute for Conflict Prevention and Resolution Panel of Distinguished Neutrals.

A FORCE TO BE RECKONED WITH

Based on her experience building winning teams, Amy has an innate ability to connect with clients. By listening to her clients, Amy identifies and understands the critical success factors before developing a game plan—what does a “win” look like for this legal dispute. Amy never gives up on meeting her client's objectives and uses her intellect and intuition to alter the game plan when issues arise. Business clients want Amy leading and representing their interests as their outside legal counsel. Opposing counsel respects her legal acumen and her tenaciousness.

Trial Experience

Why We're Different

Walsworth's trial team recognizes that in a litigation practice, the ability to successfully try cases to verdict is essential. Although trial is never the goal of the parties in a lawsuit, retaining counsel who has the ability to try cases and a history of successful trial results is a must. We have begun trial in nearly 900 jury trials, 250 non-jury trials, tried over 300 trials to verdict, and handled over 275 arbitrations.

Experience, creativity and collaboration are the keys to our successful outcomes. For nearly 35 years, Walsworth has represented clients in trial across a full spectrum of industries. We dive into our clients' businesses from the outset of representation to fully understand all of the intricacies, and develop tailored strategies and defenses that resonate in the courtroom. Our extensive experience before judges and juries is valuable not only when in trial, but is also of immense benefit before the case gets to that point. Our comprehensive knowledge of what it takes to succeed in trial is carefully applied to the strategic work-up of each case – be it through challenges to jurisdiction, managing discovery, excluding evidence, or motion practice to limit claims.

In addition, our team of highly successful trial lawyers includes members of the American Board of Trial Advocates (ABOTA), one of the preeminent national organizations for experienced trial lawyers.

We advocate tirelessly for our clients and are proud to have been included in the Daily Journal's "Top Defense Verdicts" list on multiple occasions.

LITIGATION DIVISION

While litigation should be a last resort to resolve any dispute, it is often unavoidable. Wright, Finlay & Zak's ("WFZ") attorneys have the business savvy and legal skills to aggressively represent our client's interests from the initial demand through trial in the most cost-efficient manner as practical. WFZ's attorneys are also skilled at representing our clients in trial alternatives, such as arbitrations, mediations, settlement conferences and administrative proceedings. The attorneys at WFZ are familiar with state and federal courts, bankruptcy courts, and arbitral tribunals. We provide litigation experience that our clients can trust.

If you have any questions about our litigation practice, please contact Robert Finlay, Robin Wright, or Cathy Robinson.

LOAN SERVICING AND DEFAULT LITIGATION

WFZ's core practice area includes representing national, regional and small loan servicers, investors and originators in all aspects of mortgage banking and consumer finance litigation. Representation ranges from defending creditors in individual borrower cases to class and "mass" actions involving payment misapplication, loan modification, wrongful foreclosure, predatory lending, bankruptcy, title, rent control, force-placed insurance, unfair business practices and other mortgage-related issues impacting our clients. Our attorneys have experience in defending cases involving most Federal and State statutes, including the California and Nevada HOBR, TILA, RESPA, FCRA, FDCPA, California's Rosenthal Act, TCPA, SCRA, RICO, HAMP and HAFA. We successfully resolve most cases via settlement that results in a performing asset or liquidation. WFZ also assists its clients in mortgage fraud recovery, helping our clients recover mortgage losses caused by originator, broker or appraiser fraud and negligence. WFZ can also assist with affirmative actions for judicial foreclosure, deficiency judgments, title curative and receiverships.

If you have any questions about this area of practice, please contact Robert Finlay, Robin Wright, or Cathy Robinson.
