

All clients deserve experienced lawyers who can quickly assess a legal situation and offer sound business advice that is reasonable, appropriate, and in the best interest of the client.

RICARDO MEZA
MANAGING PARTNER

RMEZA@MEZA.LAW
(312) 802-0336

Ricardo represents clients in banking, construction, and healthcare sectors, notably serving as outside general counsel for Aunt Martha's Health and Wellness. His legal experience includes over a decade serving as a federal prosecutor where he tried over 34 cases before a jury. Ricardo is an experienced investigator who also serves as a business and legal advisor to clients. His past roles include serving as Illinois' executive inspector general and regional counsel for the Mexican American Legal Defense and Educational Fund.

CELIA MEZA
PARTNER

CELIA.MEZA@MEZA.LAW
(773) 420-9691

Celia has 30 years of litigation, trial, government, and corporate counsel work experience. She previously served as the City of Chicago's Corporation Counsel where she was responsible for overseeing and managing all legal affairs for the City. Celia is a Certified Compliance & Ethics Professional (CCEP)® with expertise in labor, employment, contracts, ethics, compliance, and investigations. Her background also includes roles as a federal prosecutor and Deputy Inspector General for the City of Chicago.

DAVID HERRERA OF COUNSEL

DHERRERA@MEZA.LAW
(312) 850-9844

David brings over 17 years of legal experience from the Cook County State's Attorney's Office, specializing in the prosecution of felony offenses including violent crimes, sex crimes, and narcotics. His extensive trial experience encompasses over 40 felony jury trials and 500 bench trials.

JOHN LECHUGA
ASSOCIATE

JLECHUGA@MEZA.LAW

John specializes in federal litigation concerning commercial proceedings and commercial arbitration. He has a rich background in complex civil litigation in federal and state courts and expertise in advising businesses on regulatory matters.