INSURANCE

PRACTICE AREA COMMITTEE

About the Insurance Practice Area Group

NAMWOLF's Insurance Practice Area Committee's ("I-PAC") mission is to introduce insurance clients to a national network of preeminent women and minority owned law firms comprised of highly skilled attorneys who are interested in their clients' issues, with the goal of fostering synergistic relationships. Member firms have significant expertise representing insurance companies relating to insurance products and personal and commercial insurance lines of business. Member firms also have experience with insurer recovery actions, and matters involving life, health, annuities and disability products and ERISA plans. Many Member attorneys came from the largest and most well-known firms and in-house legal departments in the country, and have significant experience representing Fortune 500 corporations. Through the I-PAC, NAMWOLF law firms and insurers will partner to identify potential problems, develop cost-effective solutions and explore the potential for an early resolution. If a settlement is not achievable, the Member firms have the depth of experience to try cases and handle appeals.

This booklet contains profiles of NAMWOLF firms that have significant experience working with insurance companies on a variety of matters. The firms are divided alphabetically, by practice area and by state.

Insurance

Christian Dichter & Sluga insurance attorneys offer a four-decade tradition of committed advocacy for insurers in complex insurance coverage and bad faith matters. In coverage matters, we try to minimize surprises and maximize predictability, with thoughtful, practical advice designed to avoid unexpected turns of events and expensive litigation. We address coverage issues directly, resolve them, and get our lawyers off the clock. We handle coverage matters from most forms of commercial and personal lines of insurance, including coverage analysis for aviation matters. Most recently, CDS secured a victory for their insurer clients before the Supreme Court of Nevada in an appeal regarding the validity of an exclusion for damages "payable to insured" in a personal umbrella liability policy; settled a New Mexico litigation bad faith matter involving a property damage claim for only pennies on the dollar of the initial demand; and secured a directed verdict and attorneys fees award in an Arizona trial regarding a bad faith claim arising from a hail loss.

Litigation

Our small size as a firm belies our extensive breadth of experience and peer recognition nationally. With collectively hundreds of jury trials, our trial lawyers know their way around a courtroom. Our trial work has included civil trials representing insurers, policyholders, businesses, and individuals. Our attorneys have in-depth knowledge of Appellate Practice in all jurisdictions in which we practice—Arizona, Nevada, and New Mexico. We have secured victories for our clients in both State and Federal Appeals Courts. But our services are not limited to the courtroom. We have successfully resolved claims in mediation and arbitration. In January 2024, we secured an arbitration award lower than the final offer to settle and hundreds of thousands of dollars less than the amount demanded. Insurance Defense

Why We're Different

Walsworth's team of experienced attorneys works closely with in-house counsel and claims representatives to resolve claims in an efficient and cost-effective manner. We are proud to be known for consistently providing exceptional client service and thoughtful and tailored representation.

Our investment in understanding our clients' businesses and operations tailors our representation and helps to inform a strategy that is suitable to meet specific objectives. That, coupled with our experience in handling a wide variety of claims, allows us to not only oversee a claim or lawsuit, but to also suggest new and improved policies and procedures for managing both existing and future matters.

Walsworth is also uniquely positioned to represent insurance companies against lawsuits that allege "bad faith" in the handling of claims and claimed reasonable withholding of policy benefits. We have represented insurance companies in a wide range of suits arising from homeowners, automobile, travel, and commercial policies, and our breadth of experience in this area enables us to honestly evaluate a matter and recommend the right course in a variety of case scenarios.

In addition, our team includes a specialist in the investigations of suspected fraudulent insurance claims, who has conducted countless examinations under oath for numerous national insurance carriers and their SIU units. Our team can assist with accessing NICB indicators, investigating SIU claims, resolving coverage issues, providing coverage opinions, and resolving and litigating suspected fraudulent claims.

With decades of litigation and insurance defense experience, we are uniquely positioned to critically analyze insurance policies, allegations, facts as investigated and claimed, and applicable law, and develop strong and creative recommendations, defenses, and arguments for our valued clients.

Areas of Focus

- Automobile Liability
- Commercial General Liability
- Coverage Disputes
- Environmental
- Insurance Bad Faith and Fraud Defense
- Labor and Employment
- Negligence
- Personal Injury
- Premises Liability
- Product Liability
- Professional Liability

Representative Successes

- Obtained dismissal with prejudice on the second day of a jury trial, in a bad faith, large water loss litigation alleging punitive damages against the insurance carrier, when defendant prevailed on all motions in limine, which gutted the plaintiff's case.
- Obtained judgment of dismissal for a large insurance company in a bad faith case after the client's demurrer to the plaintiff's complaint was sustained without leave to amend - a rare win early in litigation given the strict rules for demurrers.
- Obtained a directed verdict dismissing plaintiff's punitive damages claim against our client in an alleged bad faith matter brought against a prominent national insurance carrier. The jury ultimately returned the verdict in favor plaintiff, which amounted to significantly less than the plaintiff's settlement demand.
- Represented the City of San Diego in a case where the plaintiff fell down the stairs at the San Diego Museum of art, a 100-year old building with no handrails and an optical illusion camouflaging the stairs. We settled for a fraction of the demand.
- Eliminated plaintiff's claims for negligence and punitive damages in a bad faith matter in which plaintiff alleged that the insurance policy was wrongfully cancelled and that the subject property was deliberately underinsured.
